ACAD Final Project

My Freshman Year Thus Far

Learning Outcomes

Student will become aware of their growth as a first year student.

Purpose

This assignment will give you an opportunity to track your progress and growth as a first year student. It will challenge you to look at both your areas of strength and weakness. Making it through your first year of college is a huge accomplishment. This assignment allows you to recap and celebrate the accomplishment; using it as a resource for the remainder of your academic journey.

Instructions

Students will do a 5 minute presentation on their freshman year experience thus far. You will have creative liberty on the presentation; however, visual aid MUST be included and it must be 5 minutes. Students can use photos, video, blogs, journals, a PowerPoint, a poster board, or any other illustrative tool to present their experience. I charge you to be as creative as possible with this assignment.

• Information presented may express the following:
  o Personal testimonies related to why you were successful or unsuccessful in achieving goals
  o Information that you wish someone had shared with them that they feel would have been helpful towards achieving goals
  o Pictures, quotes, events, songs, friends, professors, etc. that have shaped your first year

• Presentation Guidelines:
  o Presentations must be 5-8 minutes in length
  o Presentation date(s) __________________________

• Presentation will be evaluated on o Information content
  o Delivery
  o Creativity
  o Preparedness/organization