

POSITION AVAILABLE
SPEECH-LANGUAGE PATHOLOGIST
CLINICAL ASSISTANT PROFESSOR

The School of Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology at The University of Memphis is one of the leading academic and clinical programs in the country. All members of the academic and clinical faculty are established in their areas of expertise and often work collaboratively on research and in the clinical setting. This position is ideal for a strong innovative clinician who has supervisory experience or would like the challenge of providing clinical education in an academic setting. Bilingual individuals are encouraged to apply.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Speech-Language Pathology
- CCC-SLP
- Two (2) years clinical experience post certification
- Eligible for TN state license

Responsibilities:

Clinical education (supervision) of graduate student practicum
Service to the School and University

Rank:

Clinical Assistant Professor, 12 month non-tenure track position

Salary:

Dependent upon qualifications and experience

Application Deadline:

Review will begin on August 14, 2009 and will continue until the position is filled.

All interested applicants should apply at <https://workforum.memphis.edu>

The University of Memphis is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer. We urge all qualified applicants, especially men and ethnic minorities, to apply for this position. Successful candidates must meet immigration and reform act criteria. Appointments will be based on qualifications as they relate to position requirements without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability or veteran status.