

New Scholarship Available to Student Teachers for Spring 2010 Semester

For release: September 15, 2009

Established by Jeffrey B. Presley (BBA '85) in honor of his wife, an alumna of the College of Education (BS '84), the Beverly Hope Presley Scholarship will be awarded for the first time this Spring to a student who will be doing his or her student teaching during the semester.

The purpose of the award is to ease the financial burden often associated with the demands of student teaching. Applicants must demonstrate a financial need and write a brief essay that describes why they intend to become a classroom teacher. The application deadline for the $1,500 scholarship is November 10, 2009.

The application form can be found online at: <http://www.memphis.edu/coe/pdfs/scholarship-application.pdf>

Completed applications should be submitted to:

Office of Clinical Student Teaching Scholarship Committee – Presley Scholarship
University of Memphis
204 Ball Hall
Memphis, TN 38152