Digital Forensics Workshop

Project funded by the National Security Agency

Workshop Facilitator Profile

Dr. Denise Ferebee has a Ph.D. in Computer Science with a focus on Cybersecurity. She is the Director of the Center for Cybersecurity at LeMoyne-Owen College and a professor at both LeMoyne-Owen College and the University of Memphis.

Workshop Description

Gain an understanding of static computer forensics analysis by learning about forensic principles, evidence continuity and the methodology to employ when conducting a forensic investigation in response to a cyber-crime or incident.

Lunch and parking will be provided.

Registration will start at 8:30 AM*

---

Who should attend:

- Forensic practitioners
- IT security professionals
- Law enforcement agency
- Defense & military personnel
- System and Network administrators
- Information Security officers and managers

Prerequisites

- Your own laptop
- Firm understanding of
  - Windows Operating System
  - Computer hardware

*Spaces are limited.

Fogelman Executive Center | August 3 | 9 AM - 1 PM | No Cost

To register | memphis.edu/cfia/projects/professional-training/digitalforensics.php