

A Ready, Set, Grow! Production

TOY FAIR

Not sure which toys will stimulate as well as educate your child? Come see what educators are recommending for different age groups. Also discover which toys you should avoid that may be unsafe or inappropriate. Several toy and book vendors will be on hand to assist you in selecting items for upcoming holidays, birthdays, and other special events in the lives of children.

Ready, Set, Grow! is a program at the University of Memphis that helps child care centers provide high quality services that are nationally recognized.
