

READ LIKE AN EGYPTIAN | 2017 SUMMER READING

EGYPTOLOGY 101

FEATURING PRESENTERS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS
INSTITUTE OF EGYPTIAN ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Lectures for Adults and Teens

Mondays at 6:30 p.m.; Ages 13 through adult
Pre-registration is required and begins 3 weeks before each program date

June 12 - Egyptian Art
June 26 - Gods of Ancient Egypt
July 10 - Egyptian Mummies
July 24 - How to Write Like an Egyptian

Wacky Wednesday

Wednesdays at 4:30 p.m.; Ages 5 to 10
Pre-registration is required and begins one week before each program date

June 7 - Egyptian Mummies
June 21 - Gods of Ancient Egypt
July 5 - Women in Ancient Egypt
July 19 - How to Write Like an Egyptian

Tween Time

Thursdays at 4:30 p.m.; Ages 9 to 12
Pre-registration is required and begins one week before each program date

June 8 - Egyptian Mummies
July 6 - How to Write Like an Egyptian

PROGRAMS AND PRESENTERS

Egyptian Art - Presented by Dr. Lorelei Corcoran, Ph.D., Professor and Director IEAA

Why do Egyptian figures look so strange to us and what were the rules Egyptian artists followed?

Gods of Ancient Egypt - Presented by Tanya Olson, M.A. Candidate IEAA

What gods did the ancient Egyptians believe in and what were their stories?

Egyptian Mummies - Presented by Paige Brevick, M.A. Candidate IEAA

Why and how did the Egyptians mummify bodies and what can we learn from mummies about ancient Egyptian technology?

How to Write Like an Egyptian, Rosa Erika Feleg, Ph.D. Candidate IEAA

Learn about the Egyptian hieroglyphic writing system and the texts on papyri that are preserved, including the "Books of the Dead"

Women in Ancient Egypt - Presented by Alexandria Salisbury, M.A. Candidate IEAA

What clues do we have about women's lives in ancient Egypt and what famous figures, even women who ruled as kings, do we have records of?