Memphis Research and Innovation Expo

at the FedEx Institute of Technology on the University of Memphis campus

Join us as we showcase and celebrate the achievements in research from leading local scientists. The Expo will provide a platform for them to display and explain their research, innovations and creations. Many of the exhibits will offer a hands-on, interactive experience.

Keynote Speaker Michael J. Piore 11 am

Michael J. Piore is currently the David W. Skinner Professor at MIT. Dr. Piore holds, among many roles, co-faculty chair position of the MIT Industrial Performance Center. He has made original contributions to approaches to product innovation described in his book "Innovations, The Missing Dimension", co-authored by Professor Richard Lester and production innovation via his role in the Production In The Innovation Economy Center at MIT. His most recent work is focused on the transition from mass production to flexible specialization. Dr. Piore has received a MacArthur "Genius" award.
