Dozens of existing collaborations

- Wide range of populations: children, elderly, impoverished, etc.
- Partnerships work to improve the health, education, and outcomes for the Memphis community

Existing collaborations

- Healthy Shelby – Maintaining quality of life for those with chronic conditions
- FitKids & Pediatric Obesity – Uses technology to address childhood obesity
- Diabetes Intervention – Program effectiveness
Poverty Simulation (Loewenberg School of Nursing)
- Designed for those working with low-income families
- Sensitizes participants to their clients’ plight
- Creates broader awareness among policymakers, community leaders, and others of the realities of poverty

School of Public Health’s Summer Institute
- Open to the health care community
- Topics in 2015 addressed “Population Health”
  - SAS for Beginners
  - Quality Management
  - Health Analytics
  - Data Analysis & Presentation using Excel
• 42 UM Alumni on CHC staff (some with multiple degrees); 17% of staff
• 73 Interns from UM since 2010
• Over 100 UM graduate and certificate programs
• 17 bachelor’s degrees in over 250 areas of study
• Expanding internships, scholarships, practica, and fellowships at CHC to include UM students from a wide variety of graduate and undergraduate programs
• Provides affordable coverage for UM graduate students
• Coverage begins in October under the new UM/CHC agreement
• 20 Graduate Students on Memphis Plan enrolled so far
TigerLIFE

- Designed to promote independent living and community integration intellectual/developmental disabled adults
- TigerLIFE students live at Crosstown with students from Counseling, Educational Psychology and Research (CEPR); Social Work; and Special Education majors serving as RAs
- Largest, most ethnically diverse program of its nature in Tennessee
- Part of the University’s Institute on Disability (UMID)
- UMID is a Community Rehabilitation Provider for the Tennessee Department of Vocational Rehabilitation