HR PARTNERS: ESTATE PLANNING PREVIEW

Dan Murrell, Planned Giving
Know What You Have & Know Where It Will Go!

Dan H. Murrell, CFRE
Dir. of Planned Giving
University of Memphis
Estate Planning is an act of love - an intimate, deeply personal act.

- Pass on values.
- Tell your story.
- Shape your legacy.
- It is your last word.
Question:
If you were given a substantial amount of money with the one condition that you had to give it all away, how would you do that?
Estate planning is simply the systematic approach to getting your personal and financial affairs in order in the event you become mentally incapacitated or die.
Don’t have a will?

Your state has one for you.
Need more than a will.

Values-Based Estate Planning
A special free and confidential opportunity provided by the University of Memphis

Values-based estate planning is a personalized process. You work with a consultant to develop an estate plan that highlights your values, captures your priorities, advances your intentions, and protects your assets.

Take advantage of this opportunity for values-based estate planning with Jeremy Pharr of Thompson & Associates (www.coplan.com), a firm that works exclusively with nonprofit organizations and others expertise in charitable estate planning strategies.

This service is provided at no cost to friends of the University. All information shared will be held in the strictest confidence and will not be disclosed to the U of M or any other source, unless you direct it. The feedback that we have received indicates that many individuals care deeply about the University and are pleased to learn more effective ways to support both the University and their families. Thompson & Associates does not draft documents, manage money, sell any products, or ask you to make a gift.

Thompson & Associates provides unbiased counsel in connecting your lifetime values with asset strategies. Attorney Jeremy Pharr has assisted with hundreds of estates across the country.

The University of Memphis and Jeremy Pharr gave us an invaluable service. The process was easy, confidential, extremely informative, highly practical, and tremendously helpful. We cannot thank you enough for this experience - and it was free! - Richard Friedman & Iris Saxe

HR PARTNERS: INITIATIVES TO MINIMIZE PAYROLL EXCEPTIONS

Sidonna Foust
Interim Asst. Director
HR Records Management
Issues:

- Pending contracts processed after Payroll
- Graduate Assistants leaving jobs early (graduation, resignation)
- Indebtedness/collection of overpayments
Payroll Process with Pending Contracts:

• Possible Cause: Due to varying deadlines, departments require a reminder for the contracts in process.

• Possible Solution: Auto reminder in eContract workflow on 12th of month for departments to review eContracts marked “Sent to SSC” and pending eContracts. Any contracts submitted after the 15th of month at 4:30 p.m. will be tracked by HR.

Q & A
HR PARTNERS: POSITION-BASED TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

Iliana Ricelli, Workforce Management
HR PARTNERS: POSITION-BASED TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

• Over the past few months, HR has met with various departments around campus who offer training courses of various types.

• These training courses include:
  - Sexual Harassment
  - Accounting Basics
  - Budget Basics
  - Lab Safety
  - FERPA
  - WorkforUM
  - Customer Service
  - Many more!
Based on these meetings, we have identified trainings to be marked as required based on position titles.

Required trainings are now being added to staff position descriptions in Workforum (not yet viewable).

Successful completion of the training requirements will be reflected on performance appraisals starting with the 2016 cycle.
