Executive Office of Immigration Review/U.S. Immigration Court (Memphis)

This externship is with the United States Department of Justice, Executive Office for Immigration Review at the Memphis Immigration Court in downtown Memphis. The jurisdiction of the United States Immigration Courts includes all matters brought before the Court by the Department of Homeland Security. The immigration judges at the Memphis Immigration Court preside over formal immigration hearings to determine whether aliens are deportable, excludable, inadmissible or removable from the United States. In addition, the judges have jurisdiction to consider applications for various forms of discretionary and mandatory relief, including various waivers, adjustment of status, cancellation of removal, asylum, withholding of removal, and protection under the U.N. Convention Against Torture.

The position will entail in-depth research and analysis of legal issues, as well as preparation of legal memoranda for the immigration judges. Externs will have opportunities to draft decisions that will be taken under advisement by the immigration judges and that may later be used as writing samples. Externs can expect to develop research and writing skills as well as an understanding of immigration law and procedure as it relates to removal and deportation issues. In addition, they will be able to observe a variety of matters brought before the Court. Externs will work under the supervision of the Court’s Judicial Law Clerks but will have substantial interaction with the Immigration Judges.

The position requires that applicants be United States citizens. Immigration experience is preferred but not required. Selected candidates must pass a background security check conducted by the Department of Justice.

Through Professor Schaffzin, and BY WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19TH, interested students should submit (preferably in pdf form) a cover letter, resume, transcript, and writing sample (unedited by others to the extent possible) addressed to:

Latino Memphis – Derechos Immigration Program

Latino Memphis is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that has served Latino clients throughout the Mid-South for the past 20 years. Its mission is to assist Latinos in this region by connecting, collaborating and advocating for health, education and justice. Latino Memphis addresses the needs of the Latino community by offering three core programs that range from direct client services and immigration assistance to collecting household items for flood victims. As one of the only agencies in the region dedicated specifically to serving Latinos, Latino Memphis has become a resource for individuals struggling to navigate life in the U.S. and to understand their place in the legal system.

Derechos Immigration Program, Latino Memphis’ in-house immigration legal practice, provides accessible legal representation to low-income people within the jurisdiction of the Memphis Immigration Court. In addition to direct representation, Derechos also engages in outreach and community programs to disseminate information and build relationships and coalitions throughout the region.

The students enrolled in this field placement will work in devoted space at the office of Latino Memphis. Latino Memphis attorneys Casey Bryant and Stacie Hunhoff will be the primary field supervisors for this externship. Under ongoing supervision, externs will assist in representing clients in immigration matters, defensively in Immigration Court and affirmatively with petitions to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. Externs will have the opportunity for hands on experience interviewing clients, compiling client information, drafting correspondence, preparing applications, performing legal research, and attending Immigration Court. Additionally, externs will be assigned a project to be completed over the course of their term.

Preferred Courses: Professional Responsibility; Evidence, Immigration Law

Legal Aid of Arkansas – West Memphis Office

Legal Aid of Arkansas (LAA) is a public interest, not-for-profit law firm dedicated to providing equal access to justice in civil matters for low-income Arkansans through legal representation, advocacy, community partnerships, education, and outreach. Substantive practice areas include consumer law, family law, housing, public benefits, expungement, wills, and other related poverty-law issues.

Student externs placed with Legal Aid of Arkansas's West Memphis Office will be presented with opportunities to hone legal writing and researching skills and gain first-hand experience with clients in areas such as client intake, investigation, representation, community education, and outreach. Students who have completed their 2L year (60 credits) may be able to gain in-court experience by obtaining a limited practice license under Arkansas Rule Governing Bar Admission15 (Student Practice).

Preferred Courses: Professional Responsibility; Evidence

Mid-South Immigration Associates

MIA is a non-profit public interest law office whose primary mission is the provision of affordable immigration services to economically disadvantaged non-citizens within the geographic jurisdiction of the Memphis Immigration Court. Within the Memphis metro region, MIA also seeks to facilitate the administration of justice and to increase public awareness on issues related to US immigration and naturalization law.

In particular, MIA assists individuals to obtain immigration status based upon family relationships, domestic violence and persecution, and other non-employment based avenues available in US immigration law. MIA conducts case appeals as resources allow, but does not at this time engage in impact or class-action litigation. MIA also provides community legal rights presentations and consultations ‘clinics’ in the Memphis area.

Finally, MIA engages in administrative advocacy in the Memphis area, organizing and attending meetings with USCIS, ICE, EOIR, local police, local immigrants’ rights organizations and attorney stakeholders. Currently our administrative advocacy is focused around the ‘U Visa’ issue.

Under the supervision of MIA staff attorneys, assigned externs will conduct casework in a select number of cases, of the type listed above. Externs will also assist with client intake interviews, have the opportunity to work directly with clients, assist with immigration applications and filings, and potentially represent clients at immigration court hearings.

Preferred Courses: Professional Responsibility, Evidence, Immigration Law

IN-HOUSE EXTERNSHIPS

Ducks Unlimited -- Office of Land Protection

Ducks Unlimited, the world’s largest nonprofit, waterfowl and wetlands conservation organization, has an opportunity for placement of a legal extern in its National Headquarters in Memphis, Tennessee. DU is an accredited land trust with a portfolio of nearly 500 conservation easements and a fee-title portfolio of 23,000 acres. DU’s land protection efforts conserve habitat across a diverse array of landscapes, from native prairie ecosystems in the Dakotas to bottomland hardwood forests in the Mississippi Delta to wetland systems along the coasts.

The assigned legal extern will work closely with the Director of Land Protection, whose primary responsibility is to guide, draft, and negotiate easement and fee-title transactions for the organization's nationwide land protection efforts.

Specifically, the extern will assist with the following:

- Draft, review, and perform due diligence for conservation easement and fee-title transactions.
- Ensure DU’s land protection efforts comply with federal and state statutes and regulations. Because most conservation easements are either fully or partially donated, it is particularly concerned with IRC § 170 and the associated regulations on Qualified Conservation Contributions, 26 CFR § 1.170A-14.
- Ensure compliance with all internal guidelines and policies, as well as the Land Trust Alliance accreditation standards.
- Interpret Conservation Easement Deed language to determine if a landowner’s request to exercise a reserved right is permissible under the terms of the easement.
- Interpret Conservation Easement Deed language when potential violations arise and determine the organization’s response to easement violations.
- Work with General Counsel’s office to implement easement defense strategies.

The extern may also have the opportunity to work with the General Counsel’s office on matters related to nonprofit fundraising, charitable regulations and governance, and trademarks.

Preferred Courses: Professional Responsibility
Orion Federal Credit Union – Office of Legal Counsel and Compliance

Founded in 1957 as Memphis Area Teachers’ Credit Union, Orion Federal Credit Union has grown to become the largest credit union in Western Tennessee. Orion FCU is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by Orion offers a full spectrum of banking options ranging from savings and checking accounts to auto, mortgage and personal loans to almost everyone who lives or works in the greater Memphis area.

Student externs placed with Orion FCU’s Office of Legal Counsel and Compliance will support the Office’s work in the area of banking law. Among other charges, the Office works to ensure compliance with all applicable banking statutes and regulations from the Federal Reserve, NCUA, HUD, and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau; review of loan documents and modification for specific loan promotions; draft modification and forbearance agreements for commercial loans; file claims against estates and review other probate matters; and create procedures for state law matters related to decedents’ accounts, safe deposit boxes, etc.

Beyond exposure to the Office of Legal Counsel and Compliance’s banking law practice, student externs will assist in the Office’s general practice, which includes contract drafting, review, and modification; review of possible EEOC law violations; management of litigation referred to outside counsel and handling of smaller litigation matters; and provision of legal opinions on general business matters.

Credits Offered: 2 Credits (8 hours/week)

Preferred Courses: Professional Responsibility

Teach for America – Office of Legal Affairs

Teach For America (TFA) is a not-for-profit national corps of college graduates, graduate students, and professionals who commit two years to teach in low-income urban and rural public schools and become leaders in expanding educational opportunity. TFA’s mission is to build the movement to eliminate educational inequity by enlisting America’s most promising future leaders in the effort.

TFA’s Legal Affairs Team provides legal and strategic advice to over fifty Teach For America regions nationwide and the central functional teams – Program, Regional Operations, Finance, Marketing and Communications, Growth Strategy and Development and Human Assets. Our team of attorneys consists of lawyers that practice in a wide range of substantive areas including employment law, administrative law, nonprofit law, trademark and copyright protection, general compliance, and education laws. The day-to-day work often includes, partnering closely with staff members to manage questions of law and policy; creating training materials for organizational compliance such as copyright and lobbying trainings; and drafting and negotiating contracts with other partner entities and vendors.

The Legal Affairs externship provides a platform for law students committed to working in a mission-driven organization to develop legal skills and acumen while partnering directly with TFA attorneys to work on various legal projects throughout the summer. The extern will get exposure to a wide range of matters from lobbying compliance to developing organization-wide policies to real estate matters. Through the experience, the extern will have the chance to observe the strategy development of a national non-profit.

Responsibilities may include, but are not limited to:

- Conducting legal research across a wide variety of substantive areas with a particular focus on employment and benefits law, state lobbying compliance requirements, contracts, and non-profit corporation and tax law with an opportunity to create a writing sample.
- Producing high-quality written communication for different constituencies within the organization, including training materials and presentations related to various areas of legal compliance.

Credits Offered: 3 Credits (12 hours/week)

Candidate Requirements: At least 2 years of law school required; 3.2 GPA required

Candidate Materials: (1) resume, (2) cover letter, (3) copy of your law school transcript, (4) a minimum of 5 pages writing sample, and (5) a letter of recommendation.
