

Memphis Law Graduate Elected Chancellor

[Cookeville. TN] Cookeville Attorney Ronald Thurman, Class of 84', was elected Chancellor of the 13th Judicial District in the August 3rd General Election.

The 13th Judicial District is comprised of Clay, Cumberland, Dekalb, Overton, Pickett, Putnam and White Counties in the Upper Cumberland area of Middle Tennessee. Thurman succeeds Chancellor Vernon Neal who served as Chancellor for the 13th Judicial District for 26 years. Thurman was sworn in on August 30 by Chancellor Neal and assumed his duties as Chancellor on September 1st.

Thurman is married to Tina Townsend Thurman and they have two sons, Blake and Parker.