

Wednesday, February 2, 2011 | Noon | University of Memphis
University Center | Fountain View Room

African American Life During the Civil War . . . In Story!

with Storyteller, Dylan Pritchett

Come along for a unique adventure as nationally-recognized storyteller Dylan Pritchett takes you back to the Civil War with tales of African American life. The program is presented by the University of Memphis University Libraries with the support of the Friends of the University Libraries and U of M Multicultural Affairs celebrating Black History Month 2011.

From Williamsburg, Virginia, Pritchett has been a full-time story teller for over twenty years. He has researched and presented real life characters from our nation's past for the Smithsonian Museum, Colonial Williamsburg, Monticello, Museum of the Confederacy and the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. He annually visits over 100 schools, libraries, museums, festivals, conferences and educational institutions.

Feel like you stepped back in time with Pritchett's widely acclaimed storytelling style.

Admission is free and open to the public.
Paid parking is available in the Zach Curlin garage

For more information contact:
Tom Mendina, U of M University Libraries
tmendina@memphis.edu (901) 678-4310

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS[®]
University Libraries

A Tennessee Board of Regents Institution • An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action University
UOM188-FY1011/40