

Join the University of Memphis Department of Art and University Libraries for an exhibition of photographs and historical documents highlighting select African American schools in Shelby County that received money from the Julius Rosenwald Fund between 1912 and 1932.

AFRICAN-AMERICAN EDUCATION IN SHELBY COUNTY

The Rosenwald Schools

The exhibit, curated by Art History MA student Jenny Hornby, features research carried out by her and two other MA Art History students, Chantal Drake and Michelle Williams. The exhibit will also feature contemporary images by MFA photography student Michael Darough.

Opening Reception

Monday, April 26, 2010, 12:00 p.m.

The Ned R. McWherter Library

University of Memphis

Rotunda and 2nd Floor

Exhibit runs April 26 – May 14, 2010

For more information

Jenny Hornby – jenny_hornby@hotmail.com or 573-620-4709

Tom Mendina – tmendina@memphis.edu or 901-678-4310

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS[®]

University Libraries