

NATIONAL REPERTORY ORCHESTRA ANNOUNCES 2018 LIVE AUDITIONS

Live auditions will be held in Memphis, TN at the University of Memphis on Tuesday, February 6.

To apply for a live audition visit www.nromusic.com and complete the online application. Unable to attend the live audition date? For the first time, the NRO will be accepting videotaped auditions. For more information about videotaped auditions please visit www.nromusic.com.

Why Apply for the NRO?

- Professional performance experience under the batons of renowned Guest Conductors. 2018 Guest Conductors include: JoAnn Falletta, Michael Stern, and many more.
- NRO musicians are provided opportunities to be featured as concert soloists.
- Artists in Residence program featuring musicians of the Philadelphia Orchestra.
- Continuing education seminars.
- Additional solo and mock audition opportunities including personal audition reviews with NRO Music Director Carl Topilow.
- Community engagement performance experiences.

About the NRO

- The National Repertory Orchestra is a preeminent intensive summer orchestral festival located in the historic ski town of Breckenridge, CO.
- Recent NRO alumni have won positions with orchestras including the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Philadelphia Orchestra, Atlanta Symphony, and many more.
- Participants are provided with accommodations in ski resort style condos and a weekly grocery stipend for the duration of the festival.
- Work-study opportunities are also available by application for students seeking additional financial assistance.

Summer staff positions and administrative fellowships are also available. Staff members and administrative fellows receive the same benefits offered to musicians. To learn more, please visit www.nromusic.com or contact Cecile Forsberg, Chief Operations Officer at audition@nromusic.com or call 970.453.5825.