SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

We understand that financing your college education is critical. That's why over 82 percent of our undergraduate students received financial support totaling $135 million last year. Each year hundreds of scholarships are awarded.

To learn more about financial aid and scholarships for which you might qualify, visit us online at www.memphis.edu/financialaid.

ACADEMIC AWARDS

For a merit-based award, you must apply and be accepted to the University by March 1. You will automatically be considered for academic scholarships based on your ACT/SAT scores and cumulative high school GPA.

FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID (FAFSA)

To apply for financial aid, you must file your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible after January 1, but no later than the priority deadline of March 1. FAFSA forms are available through your high school, the U of M or online.

The FAFSA is used to apply for the Tennessee HOPE Lottery Scholarship. For information about this scholarship, visit www.CollegePaysTN.com.

MEMPHIS
Dreamers. Thinkers. Doers.

2010 - 2011 SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

The University of Memphis awards hundreds of academic scholarships each year to entering freshmen. All scholarships are awarded for the academic year (Fall and Spring semesters only). Scholarships are awarded based on information submitted on the University of Memphis admissions application. A separate scholarship application is not required unless noted. The priority deadline for admission to the University of Memphis for all scholarship consideration is March 1.

All University of Memphis scholarship program awards are based on a combination of ACT/SAT scores and cumulative high school grade point average (7th semester). These scholarships are four year, renewable scholarships requiring full-time enrollment. Early application to the University of Memphis is strongly encouraged as scholarship awards are limited. Students eligible for the State of Tennessee HOPE Scholarship Program (Lottery Scholarship) should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as specified by the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation (TSAC) in order to receive the HOPE scholarship(s) for which they are eligible. For more details regarding the Tennessee HOPE Scholarship Program, please go to the HOPE Lottery Scholarship Web Site at www.CollegePaysTN.com.

Unless otherwise noted, renewal of scholarships is based on a 2.75 cumulative grade point average in the first year and a 3.00 cumulative grade point average thereafter. In addition, to renew an academic scholarship, students must complete required service hours to the University. All scholarship awards are subject to reduction based on state appropriation of scholarship funding. All awards made after the March 1 deadline are at the discretion of the Scholarship Office and not guaranteed based on the academic requirements of the scholarship. Unless otherwise noted, an eligible student may accept one of the scholarships above. All scholarships listed require full-time enrollment in order for a student to receive the award. If a student exceeds their financial aid budget, as set by the Financial Aid Office, scholarship awards will be reduced as required by law.
