Regions Intersect Login Steps

To access the Regions Intersect System, click on the following link: https://intersect.regions.com/

All Intersect users will use their current UoM username as the Regions Intersect Username. Once Sharrion Smith, Procurement Specialist, activates your username in the Regions Intersect System, the Intersect user will receive two system generated emails. The subject lines will look like this:

Email 1: Subject: Regions Intersect: Username

Sent from: mailbox-regions@aocencservices.com

Your user account is created for organization: 'uom' and your username is: 'bnelson' for Brittany Nelson

Below is the login screen Intersect users will see when accessing Intersect:
https://intersect.regions.com/  Enter:
Username
Temporary Password
Organization ID: uom
After entering Username, Password and Organization ID - all criteria will be emailed and the Intersect users will receive a prompt to be sent a security code.

By default, security code will be sent via email. If a mobile phone is added security code can be sent via text message.
Once he or she clicks “Send Me a Security Code” the Intersect user will be emailed a security code that he or she will use once. They’ll be prompted to log in again with Username, Password, Organization ID and Security Code. [If he or she is allowing cookies to be stored on a browser, he or she should not be prompted for the security code. If Intersect user continues to receive the security code, have an IT person look at the browser/administrator settings to potentially adjust.]

Once logged in, the Terms of Use will display. To continue any further, the Intersect user must accept the terms and conditions. After accepting, the Intersect user will be prompted to change their password. The new password is the only required field on this page.
This is your first login. Please update your information and change your password.

- After this information is updated you will be redirected to the Home Page.
- You must create a new password before you proceed.
