Center for Student Development

"STUDENT LEARNING THROUGH ENGAGEMENT AND INVOLVEMENT"

We offer the students at the University of Memphis many different services that facilitate academic, career, and personal growth. These include:

- Career Counseling
- Educational Support Program
- Psychological Counseling
- Testing Center
- APA Internship

Counseling and educational support services are free to undergraduate, law, and graduate students. The Center is accredited by the International Association of Counseling Services (I.A.C.S.).

Workshops and seminars on timely topics are offered through the Center's unique program, called:

- Dial-A-Class

This program includes resources from all units of the Center and can be accessed by calling 678-2068.

- Meet Our Staff

Of the 20 professional staff at the Center for Student Development, 8 are licensed psychologists. There are, as well, four psychology interns, with 7 support staff and 14 graduate assistants. Each semester, several counseling practicum students work at the Center under supervision.

- Practicum Program
- Pre-doctoral Internship Program

The Center is also a human service training facility. Students in counseling, psychology, and higher education graduate programs routinely provide services and receive training under
