

HOPE Lottery Scholarship Appeals

The Tennessee Education Lottery Scholarship (TELS) is awarded based on policies set forth by the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation (TSAC). TSAC’s TELS policy allows an appeal process for students who fail to meet enrollment requirements due to extenuating medical or personal circumstances.

Tennessee Lottery Legislation DOES NOT grant the authority to allow appeals (regardless of the circumstances) for the following:

- GPA requirements for both initial and continuing eligibility.
- Score requirements for ACT, SAT, and GED tests.
- Limit on attempted hours or years of enrollment.
- Income limit for a Need-Based Supplemental Award.
- Residency status.

However, TELS regulations DO allow for students who are denied eligibility to appeal the following:

- Change of enrollment from full time to part time or from part time to less than 6 hours after the last day to drop a class without a “W”. The change of enrollment must be approved in advance for non-emergency situations.
- Withdrawal from the university.
- Failure to enroll within 16 months of high school graduation, home school completion, or GED test date.
- Failure to enroll for one or more required semesters.
- Other extraordinary circumstances beyond your control (must be verifiable and thoroughly documented by authoritative sources).

If, after reviewing the information above, you feel that you can meet the criteria for an appeal, please complete The University of Memphis TELS Appeal Form. Make sure you supply all information requested on the form, sign and date the form, attach all appropriate documentation, submit the form to the Scholarship Office, and keep a copy of the form and all documentation for your records.

REMEMBER: Appeals will not be reviewed without verifiable documentation of one’s extenuating and/or personal circumstances.

Please use the following table for example reasons for appeals and examples of appropriate, verifiable documentation.

Example Reasons for Appeals	Examples of Appropriate, Verifiable Documentation

The University of Memphis HOPE Appeal Guidelines

The University of Memphis has established an Institutional Review Panel (IRP) to hear appeals for students who are denied or who lose their HOPE Scholarship. If you receive notice that you have lost your eligibility for the HOPE Scholarship, you have 30 days to file an appeal with the Scholarship Office. (Additional time, up to a maximum total of 45 days, will be granted in the event of verifiable, documented extenuating circumstances).

The IRP has six (6) meetings a year to hear appeals for the HOPE Scholarship. According to TSAC TELS policies and procedures, students must receive notification within fourteen (14) days of their appeal decision. Thus, please use the following table for the dates of this year's IRP meetings and when HOPE Appeals are accepted by the Scholarship Office for review.

2010 IRP Meetings	Appeals Accepted
January 8, 2010	December 21, 2009 –January 7, 2010
March 5, 2010	February 22 – March 4, 2010
May 7, 2010	April 19 – May 6, 2010
June 25, 2010	June 14 – June 24, 2010
August 6, 2010	July 26- August 5, 2010
October 22, 2010	October 11 – October 21, 2010

Important Reminders:

In the event you receive notification of loss of TELS eligibility, you...

- ✓ Must submit your appeal during the above specified dates.
- ✓ Should give the Scholarship Office and the TELS Institutional Review Panel (IRP) a minimum of two (2) weeks to review and respond to your appeal;
- ✓ Have the right to appeal to the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation (TSAC) in Nashville within 45 days upon receipt from the IRP that your appeal has been denied:
