S.A.S Service on Saturday
Site Leader Application
Fall 2015

The Service on Saturday Site Leaders serve as an integral part to the success of Service on Saturday community service projects. Site Leaders report to SoS Co-Chairs and are the primary contacts between assigned agencies and SoS participants. Site Leaders are also expected to represent the University of Memphis, Students Advocating Service and hold volunteers accountable.

Responsibilities include:

- Lead groups of student volunteers to and at a site during Service of Saturdays
- Maintain contact with the host agency of assigned site
- Provide brief information about the site for volunteers
- Be prepared to facilitate ice breakers for your volunteers
- Keep track of participants’ whereabouts during the service
- Serve as a role model to fellow students at Service on Saturdays
- Assist with set up and break down
- Commit to at least two assigned Service on Saturdays
- Attend at least one weekly S.A.S project this semester
- Other duties as assigned

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE September 4, 2015 by 4:30pm
IN THE STUDENT LEADERSHIP & INVOLVEMENT OFFICE (UC 211)

Interviews will be held on September 9th, 2015. Selected site leaders will be notified by September 12th, 2015. If chosen as a site leader, there will be a mandatory training September 16, 2015 at 5:30pm-8pm.

Please sign up for an interview slot when turning in your application.
