FIELD MANUAL
MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM

The Department of Social Work at the University of Memphis is situated in the School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy, an academic unit within the College of Arts and Sciences. In service to the needs of the community, the department has offered a Bachelor of Arts degree in social work for over 35 years. Extending that mission in 2011, the department accepted its first graduate students in a program that offers the Master of Social Work (MSW) degree.

The MSW program was established with a single concentration—preparing students for work with children and families. In its inception, the program was able to build on the efforts of the undergraduate program in social work, particularly the relationships the Department of Social Work already enjoyed with a variety of public, quasi-public, and private agencies and programs that provide a variety of services to diverse client systems. Many of those relationships were essential to helping establish a foundation for the development of the MSW program and will continue to play a vital role in the development of the program by serving as field placement sites at which the program’s students secure first-hand knowledge and experience in the provision of social work service.

This manual outlines the parameters of the field program and the policies and procedures pertaining to this important component of social work education. Readers should note that, while the manual outlines the structure of the field program and details the policies and procedures on which the program is founded, the manual periodically will be updated to reflect changes and developments in the MSW program. Students in the MSW program are encouraged to use this document in conjunction with the program’s Student Handbook.

Note: Throughout this document, several terms may be used interchangeably. At various times, the terms:

- “Field”, “field placement”, “field practice”, “field practicum”, “placement”, “practicum”, and “internship” all are used to communicate that part of the curriculum in which MSW students are engaged as social work interns in agencies in the community;
- “Director of Field Placement”, “Director of Graduate Field Placement”, “MSW Director of Field Placement”, “field director”, and “MSW field director” all are used to indicate that member of the social work faculty charged with overseeing the field component of the MSW curriculum.

A primary focus of the Master of Social Work program is to enhance human wellbeing and help to meet the basic human needs of all people, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty. This mission is consistent with the values of the social work profession in that all aspects of the program are committed to enhancing service to vulnerable populations while promoting social justice. Mission Statement of the Master of Social Work Program:

The mission of the Master of Social Work program is to educate advanced professional social workers for practice with at-risk populations. The Master of Social Work program is dedicated to (a) educating social workers with knowledge, values, and skills for evidence-based practice, (b) advancing the knowledge base of the social work profession and (c) providing regional leadership in the development and implementation of policies, programs, and services for at-risk populations.
PURPOSE / GOALS

Purpose of the Social Work Profession:

The social work profession receives its sanction from public and private auspices and is the primary profession in the development, provision, and evaluation of social services. Professional social workers are leaders in a variety of organizational settings and service delivery systems within local, state, national and global contexts.

The profession of social work is based on the values of service, social and economic justice, the dignity and worth of the person, the importance of human relationships, and integrity and competence in practice. With these values as defining principles, the purposes of social work are:

1. To enhance human well-being and alleviate poverty, oppression, and other forms of social injustice;
2. To enhance the social functioning and interactions of individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities by involving them in accomplishing goals, developing resources, and preventing and alleviating distress;
3. To formulate and implement social policies, services, and programs that meet basic human needs and support the development of human capacities;
4. To pursue policies, services, and resources through advocacy and social or political actions that promote social and economic justice;
5. To develop and use research, knowledge, and skills that advance social work practice; and
6. To develop and apply practice in the context of diverse cultures.

Purpose of Social Work Education:

Social work education is grounded in the profession’s history, purposes, and philosophy, and is based on a body of knowledge, values, and skills. Social work education enables students to integrate the knowledge, values, and skills of the social work profession for competent practice, educating students so as to enhance human well-being and help meet the basic human needs of all people, with particular attention to the needs and empowerment of people who are vulnerable, oppressed, and living in poverty. To that end, social work education is committed to developing student knowledge, values, and skills essential to competent social work practice, the importance of human relationships, the dignity and worth of all persons, and integrity throughout all aspects of professional practice.

Purpose of Field Education:

Field placement is an important component of the social work degree program and is designed to help students integrate their academic learning so as to understand and develop good skills for entering the profession of social work. An internship placement provides opportunities for students to apply concepts and skills learned in the classroom in “real-world” work settings and to build work histories of relevant experience that will assist them in beginning their social work careers.
The purpose of the internship is to provide students with the opportunity to test, through practical experience, the knowledge and skills acquired in academic courses. The experience also allows students to identify areas in which they need additional educational experience. Through application of concepts, theories, and practices learned in the classroom, students learn role behavior and techniques necessary to function effectively as skillful social workers. The experience provides further value by helping students decide what kind of positions they may wish to pursue after graduation. Internships primarily function to provide a learning experience for the student. Secondarily, internships provide a valuable community service by contributing to the placement agencies, offering assistance on valued projects and bringing new ideas to practitioners.

Goals of the Master of Social Work Program:

Stemming from the mission statements of the Department of Social Work and the Master of Social Work Program, nine (9) program goals have been developed for the MSW program at the University of Memphis:

Goal 1: The program will produce graduates grounded in the liberal arts and a person-in-environment framework with advanced knowledge, values, and skills to practice in a critical, reflective manner.

Goal 2: The program will produce graduates with an advanced professional foundation with an emphasis on the ability to implement evidence-based methods to promote well-being in at-risk populations.

Goal 3: The program will produce graduates with a professional foundation with a generalist practice perspective emphasizing critical thinking in relationship to practice with diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.

Goal 4: The program will produce graduates with advanced knowledge, values, and skills for practice intended to serve at-risk clients and communities in rural and urban environments.

Goal 5: The program will produce graduates with a professional foundation with a generalist perspective that includes practice with both rural and urban, at-risk populations to recognize, support, and build on strengths.

Field education students are expected to apply the professional foundation in ways that demonstrate an understanding of social work values and ethics and their implications. In linking field to their classroom courses, students are expected to:

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Overview of MSW Curriculum:

The curriculum of the Master of Social Work program consists of two main components – the first thirty (30) hours dedicated to a foundation (generalist) curriculum and the final thirty (30) hours of the program dedicated to an advanced (concentration) curriculum. These requirements include six (6) hours of field practicum in the first year and twelve (12) hours of field practicum in the second year. The program goals (outlined above) are translated into the field program through competency measures that provide an outcome performance approach to curriculum design.

The curriculum of the program integrates nine (9) core competencies identified by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) in such a manner as to apply to the needs of the region, and meet the mission of the Program, Department, School, College, and University. Within these considerations, the curriculum is designed to instill the importance of incorporating professional ethics and values into all aspects of social work practice, to develop students’ critical and ethical thinking skills, to foster an appreciation and understanding about human diversity and the effects of oppression at all system levels, and to include an examination of the concerns of the social work profession with at-risk populations, human rights, and social and economic justice. Both the generalist practice and specialization portions of the program emphasize evidence-based practice and critical thinking skills.

The generalist practice curriculum is designed to prepare students for generalist social work practice through mastery of the nine (9) core competencies. The foundation focuses on ethically-informed social work practice with diverse populations of individuals, groups, families, organizations, and communities. Beginning with the generalist practice curriculum and extending through to the specialization portion, the MSW program educates students for work as professionals on multidisciplinary teams and in interdisciplinary settings to deliver, develop, manage, and evaluate services and to advocate for change across service delivery systems. The student’s proficiency in those practice behaviors that apply most directly to generalist practice field placement is measured both by the student and her/his field instructor at the end of each semester of the foundation placement year.

Similarly, the goal of the specialization curriculum is to advance the generalist content in a manner that prepares students to utilize evidence-based, ethically-informed social work practices to help children and families restore, maintain, and promote social functioning. The knowledge, skills, and competence acquired by students in the specialization are designed to produce advanced social work practitioners who have the skills for ethically-informed social work practice including advanced assessment, relationship building/enhancement, application of goal-oriented and evidence-based interventions, evaluation of practice, and lifelong professional development. The specialization curriculum builds on the generalist curriculum to further prepare students to identify issues salient to client needs, to plan objectives, to logically develop and implement interventions, and to evaluate outcomes. Again, the student's proficiency in those practice behaviors that apply most directly to specialization field placement is measured both by the student and her/his field instructor at the end of each semester of the specialization placement year.

In an effort to accommodate a wide range of student needs, the MSW program of study offers options for full-time (2 years of study; 60 credit hours), extended study (3 to 4 years of study; 60 credit hours), and advanced standing (1-2 years of study; 37 credit hours). Regardless of progression through the program, the educational components of each sequencing option are the same; all MSW students follow the same learning expectations for field education and meet the same requirements for graduation.

Embedded throughout the curriculum is a focus on social work practice with at-risk populations, particularly children and families. In addition, classroom and field learning experiences are dedicated to: (a) educating social workers by fostering knowledge, values, and skills for evidence-based practice with children and families; (b) advancing the knowledge base of the social work profession; and (c) providing regional leadership in the development and implementation of policies, programs, and services for at-risk populations, particularly children and families.

Generalist Curriculum:

The generalist curriculum provides evidence-based knowledge, behaviors and skills for social work practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations and communities. The generalist curriculum allows students to extend the basic knowledge gained in the foundation to advanced evidence-based practice with families and children. Both the generalist and specialization portions of the program emphasize evidence-based practice and critical thinking skills.

Students must follow a structured program of study that includes all of the following foundation courses (30 credit hours):

Specialization Curriculum

The MSW program at the University of Memphis offers two specializations: 1) Advanced Practice with Children and Families and 2) Advanced Practice with Adults and Families. The goal of the specializations is to advance the generalist content in a manner that prepares students to utilize evidence-based, ethically-informed social work practices to help either children/youth or adults and families promote, restore, and maintain social functioning. The knowledge, skills, and competencies acquired by students in the specializations are designed to produce advanced social work practitioners who have the skills for ethically-informed social work practice including advanced assessment, relationship building/enhancement, application of goal-oriented and evidence-based interventions, evaluation of practice, and lifelong professional development.

Upon successful completion of all generalist courses, students move to the specializations curriculum, which includes all the following courses (30 credit hours).

DUAL DEGREE PROGRAMS

Students who are interested in pursuing other dual degree options should consult with the MSW program coordinator and their assigned adviser. It is recommended that students who are interested in pursuing this option start planning at the point of admission to the MSW program if possible. The MSW program offers the following dual degree options:

Social work has two dual degree programs that are currently recognized by the University of Memphis Graduate School. These are the Master of Social Work/Master of Public Health (MSW/MPH) and the Master of Social Work/ Master of Science in Instructional Curriculum and Leadership with a concentration in special education and an emphasis in applied behavioral analysis. Requirements for these two dual degrees are as follows:
Dual MSW-MPH

A program of study leading to both a Master of Social Work (MSW) and a Master of Public Health (MPH) is offered. Students must meet the following requirements.

A. Program Admission

Admission to the dual program will require separate admission to each program. Students are admitted to each program separately and must meet ALL admissions criteria for each degree. Completion of one degree is not contingent upon completion of both.

B. Program Requirements

Students may earn up to a maximum of twelve hours of dual credit. The following courses will qualify for both the MSW and the MPH.

a. PUBH 7132 may be substituted for SWRK 7026.

b. PUBH 7985 may be substituted for either SWRK 7053 or SWRK 7054.

c. Electives in either of the two programs may be shared.

Dual MSW-MS

A program of study leading to both a Master of Social Work (MSW) and a Master of Science in Special Education/Applied Behavior Analysis (MS) is offered. Students must meet the following requirements.

A. Program Admission

Admission to the dual program will require separate admission to each program. Students are admitted to each program separately and must meet ALL admissions criteria for each degree. Completion of one degree is not contingent upon completion of both.

B. Program Requirements

Students may earn up to a maximum of twelve hours of dual credit. The following courses will qualify for both the MSW and the MS.

a. EDPR 7521 may be substituted for SWRK 7025.

b. SPED 7519 may be repeated and may be substituted for SWRK 7053 or SWRK 7054.

c. Electives in either of the two programs may be shared.

Other Dual Degree Options

Students interested in pursuing other dual degree options not listed above should consult with the MSW program coordinator. Other dual degree options may be approved at the discretion of both the MSW program coordinator and the graduate program coordinator assigned to the other program. Students seeking dual degrees must be admitted to both graduate programs and develop a program of study that leads to the successful completion of the program requirements for both degrees. Up to fifteen credit hours may be shared between the two programs (provided that the student meets all degree requirements for both programs).

The Role of Field Placement in the Curriculum:

As the signature pedagogy of social work education, field placement is an important component of the social work degree program and is designed to further academic learning by integrating theories, conceptual frameworks, values, and skills into the “real world” social work practice environment. The overall goal of the MSW field education program is to facilitate students’ professional socialization, to expand their perspective of social work practice, and to provide the opportunity to apply to “real world” social work situations the knowledge and skills learned in the classroom. The focus of the field practice experience is evidence-based practice in actual social service settings and the development of students’ understanding of and commitment to the profession.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES (PROGRAM DESIGN)

Course Requirements:

At the University of Memphis, the field practicum consists of six (6) courses: two (2) courses for the foundation level of placement – Generalist Field Placement I (SWRK 7051) and Generalist Field Placement II (SWRK 7052); and four (4) courses for the advanced (specialization) level – Specialization Field Placement III (SWRK 7053), Specialization Field Placement IV (SWRK 7054), Integrative Field Seminar I (SWRK 7055) and Integrative Field Seminar II (SWRK 7056). Each course is intended to complement the material being learned in the classroom setting during that semester as well as in preceding terms, with each semester building on the preceding semester(s).

Advanced standing students are required to complete Advanced Standing Field (SWRK 7050) which incorporates objectives and competencies from both the Generalist Field Placement I (SWRK 7051) and the Generalist Field Placement II (SWRK 7052) courses.

As part of the field courses in the generalist year of placement, students also are required to participate in an integrative seminar class (both in classroom and online settings) in which they have opportunities to process what they are learning in the field, applying theory to practice in a group setting, and learning from peers placed at other types of agencies. Activities related to the seminar are included in determining the grade for the respective field course in the foundation year of placement.

Students are eligible to begin field placement only after completing the majority of the SWRK 7001 course (Social Work Practice Skills). Extended study (part-time) students, complete the entire SWRK 7001 course prior to beginning field, whereas full-time students phase into beginning their placements in the final two weeks of the SWRK 7001 course. Students in the generalist year of placement (both full-time and extended study) must attend and participate in the concurrent field seminar sessions.
In order to successfully complete the requirements for field placement, each student is required to:

1. Spend a minimum of 960 clock hours working in the field – 400 hours in generalist field placement; and 560 hours in specialization field placement (See Appendices A-1);

2. Complete time logs that document her/his time and activities in the field (See Appendices C-3);

3. Establish a learning contract for each year of placement. Early in the field experience, the agency field instructor and the student should construct a detailed list of tasks and responsibilities that will lead to the accomplishment of the competencies prescribed for the field placement course. This learning contract, signed by the field instructor and the student, should be unique to the student and should be used in monitoring the student’s progress (See Appendices C-2);

4. Maintain an online journal which reflects her/his reactions to issues raised in her/his work with clients, agency professionals, and peers. This journal is to be shared with the student’s field instructor and with the MSW field director and should demonstrate the student’s growth as a professional; and

5. Complete an evaluation of her/his performance in regard to the program competencies at the end of each semester.

Students in the advanced standing program must complete the following requirements for field placement, each student is required to:

1. Spend a minimum of 570 clock hours working in the field -10 hours in Advanced Standing Field (SWRK 7050)- student will complete volunteer hours to get acclimated to clinical programming in the graduate school; 560 hours in specialization field placement (See Appendices A-1);

2. Complete time logs that document her/his time and activities in the field (See Appendices C-3);

3. Establish a learning contract for each year of placement. Early in the field experience, the agency field instructor and the student should construct a detailed list of tasks and responsibilities that will lead to the accomplishment of the competencies prescribed for the field placement course. This learning contract, signed by the field instructor and the student, should be unique to the student and should be used in monitoring the student’s progress (See Appendices C-2);

4. Maintain an online journal, which reflects her/his reactions to issues raised in her/his work with clients, agency professionals, and peers. This journal is to be shared with the student’s field instructor and with the MSW field director and should demonstrate the student’s growth as a professional; and

5. Complete an evaluation of her/his performance in regard to the program competencies at the end of each semester (See Appendices D-2; D-4).

Students interested in pursuing School Social Work Licensure during their graduate programming must complete the following requirements for field placement:

1. Evidence of completion of a field placement for a minimum of one academic year in a school setting (minimum of 400 clock hours). This requirement can also be satisfied through employment for at least six months as a school social worker in a school setting. In the latter instance, we must receive a letter directly from your supervisor with a description of length of employment, duties, and an evaluation of your performance in this setting. Students should meet with their academic advisor/major professor early in their first year of study (MSW) in order to plan an appropriate program which meets the course requirements, field experience requirement, and the six standards for state licensure. Upon completion of the degree and additional requirements, application for Tennessee state licensure in school social work can be made.

2. Must take part in activities within the context of field that incorporate the following six standards dictated by the Tennessee State Department of Education: 1) Understanding of social, emotional, cultural and economic issues affecting students and schools and ability to assist students and families in overcoming barriers to learning; 2) Understanding of the needs of students at risk due to disability, economic condition, family disruption or other environmental factors and ability to work with teachers, school counselors, school psychologists and family resource center staff in addressing student needs; 3) Ability to serve as liaison between home and school, assist parents in understanding their children's needs, interpret student assessments to parents, and work with the parents in developing parenting skills; 4) Ability to perform case management functions, facilitating the coordination and integration of community services to benefit students and their families; 5) Ability to support students with special needs by preparing social histories, contributing to the development and implementation of individualized education programs (IEPs) and helping ensure the participation of parents; 6) Understanding of federal, state and local laws and policies affecting students including issues such as services for disadvantaged students, services required by students with disabilities, due process rights of students and families, child abuse and neglect, HIV and AIDS, confidentiality, attendance, suspension and expulsion.

3. Complete time logs that document her/his time and activities in the field;

4. Establish a learning contract for each year of placement. Early in the field experience, the agency field instructor and the student should construct a detailed list of tasks and responsibilities that will lead to the accomplishment of the competencies prescribed for the field placement course. This learning contract, signed by the field instructor and the student, should be unique to the student and should be used in monitoring the student's progress;

5. Maintain an online journal which reflects her/his reactions to issues raised in her/his work with clients, agency professionals, and peers. This journal is to be shared with the student's field instructor and with the MSW field director and should demonstrate the student's growth as a professional; and

6. Complete an evaluation of her/his performance in regard to the program competencies at the end of each semester.

Grading:

Students are evaluated at the end of each term (See Appendix D). The program competencies define the standards by which both the field instructor and student evaluate the student's performance. In the generalist year of placement, these evaluation results are combined with scores obtained by the student through participation in field seminar to determine a grade for the respective semester. All field grades for both the generalist and the specialization years of placement are given by the Director of Field Placement for the Department of Social Work.
If a student receives less than a "B" in field, s/he will be reviewed by the MSW program retention committee. In such cases, the student's standing within the program will be addressed by the MSW program retention committee. Generally this committee will consist of: 1) the student's advisor, 2) the MSW Director of Field, and 3) the field liaison. The program retention committee will review oral and written reports of the student’s performance and the student will be given the opportunity to address the committee. The committee will deliberate and decide whether or not to recommend dismissal of the student from the program to the Associate Dean for Graduate Studies or the Student Judicial Affairs Committee. Students shall be dismissed from field placement only after the appropriate disciplinary or academic policies and procedures of the university have been followed. However, while involved in placement, students should be cognizant that they serve at the approval of the agency to which they are assigned. As an extension of this provision, the agency may immediately remove from its premises any student who they believe poses an immediate threat or danger.

If the decision made by the MSW program retention committee is not to recommend dismissal, the student will be given an opportunity to re-take the field course for that year of placement (foundation or concentration), but will have to start over at a different agency with zero (0) hours credited toward the respective year of placement. If the committee’s decision is to recommend dismissal of the student from the program, the student will be given a letter explaining the rationale behind the decision. In accordance with university policy, the student’s case also will be reviewed by either the Associate Dean for Graduate Studies of the College of Arts and Sciences or by the Student Judicial Affairs Committee. The decision of either the Associate Dean for Graduate Studies or the Student Judicial Affairs Committee will be final. If the student wishes to appeal the decision made by the Associate Dean for Graduate Studies or the Student Judicial Affairs Committee, he or she must follow university policies outlined in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities.

A grade of "Incomplete" can be given if evaluation of the student's progress is not received by the Director of Field Placement by the specified date. If 2/3 of the hours needed in field are not accrued by the end of the semester, the student will receive an “F” for a final grade in field. If the student has accrued at least 2/3 of the hours required for the semester, but is short hours due to unforeseen circumstance (previously discussed with the seminar and field instructor) then the student will receive an “I” for field. Unless the student completes the requirements for removal of the “I” within 90 days from the end of the semester or summer term in which it was received (see University Calendar), the “I” will automatically change to an “F,” regardless of whether or not the student is enrolled for the subsequent semester.

The student will be certified for graduation when all requirements are met, including the removal of all “I” grades. For students who have an “I” in the semester in which they expect to graduate, the certification process and graduation will automatically be deferred to the next term.

Selection of the Practicum Agency/Institution:

Field settings are selected based upon their ability to offer students experience in providing social work services and adequate supervision for the specific activities in which they are engaged in the respective year of placement – generalist skills for foundation field, and skills specific to the program specialization for advanced field. For both years of placement, settings must be able to provide a range of activities such that the student will be able to demonstrate competence across the range of practice behaviors identified on the competency matrix for the respective year of placement.

A key feature in the selection of a field agency is whether it can provide adequate supervision for the placement experience. Per the mandates of the Council on Social Work Education, such supervision must be provided by an instructor who holds a Master’s degree in social work from a CSWE-accredited program. Additionally, the Department of Social Work prefers that said instructor have at least two years of post-MSW experience. Agencies selected to serve as placement sites are expected to promote the educational aspect of this process by allowing the agency staff member designated to serve as the field instructor sufficient time to:

a. Hold regular weekly conferences with each student;
b. Be available in emergency situations;
c. Have conferences with the faculty liaison at least once a semester;
d. Attend meetings sponsored by the Department of Social Work; and
e. Prepare evaluations of the student's work.

The Department of Social Work foresees rare situations in which an agency might not be able to provide student supervision by an agency staff member who holds a CSWE-accredited social work degree (e.g., a field instructor leaves the agency in the middle of the placement and is replaced by someone other than a social worker). In these circumstances, a faculty member may be asked to serve as field instructor. In such situations, the agency should provide the faculty member with adequate space to meet with the student, as needed, and should assign an agency staff member to serve as liaison to the field instructor. This liaison will be charged with the responsibility to provide orientation and ongoing information about agency policies and to facilitate assignments for the student.

For the student, the agency should provide a suitable workspace. This generally should include a desk and chair, telephone, computer, supplies, and access to clerical services, but the Department of Social Work recognizes that work environments vary from one agency to another. In all cases, students should be privileged to privacy when conducting client services that require confidentiality.

Some agencies may provide reimbursement for travel or other expenses in carrying out agency business, or may offer a stipend or salary in exchange for the services the student provides. Arrangements regarding stipends and reimbursement of expenses are strictly between the agency and the student; neither the University of Memphis, nor the Department of Social Work, has any standing in such arrangements.

The criteria for selecting a field education agency includes, but is not limited to:

1. The agency/institution must be legally established;
2. The agency/institution must follow the guidelines of the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) for MSW programs;
3. The agency/institution must be an organization that embraces and incorporates the values and ethics of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW);

4. The agency must offer social work practice across micro, mezzo, and/or macro systems, providing direct services that are preventive, habilitative, or rehabilitative;

5. Clients from the agency must be sufficiently diverse in terms of gender, race, ethnicity, age, culture, religion, sexual orientation and identity, and social class so as to insure that students are exposed to issues that have an impact on a range of people and problems;

6. The agency/institution must provide direct weekly supervision with a social worker who holds a MSW degree from an accredited institution, but also can include diverse learning opportunities under the supervision of various staff members;

7. Although students are to be involved in doing the work of the agency, said agency must recognize that field placement is a learning experience and must agree to view work expectations and workloads for students differently from those of staff;

8. The agency/institution must provide facilities for the student's use (e.g., office space, office equipment, etc.);

9. The agency/institution must observe policies of non-discrimination in regard to race, ethnic origin, sex, age, religion, disability, or sexual orientation and identity;

10. The agency/institution must allow time necessary for the field instructor to adequately supervise students, meet with the faculty liaison and/or the Director of Field Placement, attend training(s), and prepare student evaluations as required;

11. Membership in a national standard-setting body appropriate to its function or licensing by the state is desirable. The agency must approve the arrangements for the practicum and the agency staff must be receptive to students and willing to cooperate with their program of learning; and

12. The agency/institution must provide a learning environment that allows the student to demonstrate all ten core competencies outlined in the Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards of the Council on Social Work Education.

Acceptance and Placement of Students in Field Practice:
The following criteria are used for accepting and placing students in field positions:

1. Students are eligible to begin generalist field placement only after completing the majority of the SWRK 7001 course (Social Work Practice Skills). Extended study (part-time) students, complete the entire SWRK 7001 course prior to beginning field, whereas full-time students phase into beginning their placements in the final two weeks of the SWRK 7001 course;

2. Students are to make a formal written application for the generalist year of field placement. For full-time students, this application is to be submitted immediately after they are accepted into the MSW program; part-time students should submit their application for the generalist year while engaged in coursework 4-6 months prior to when they plan to begin placement (See Appendices A-5 & A-6);
3. Along with submitting an application for field placement, the student must join the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and purchase liability insurance (with minimum coverage of 1,000,000 / 5,000,000), and provide documentation of such coverage to the Director of Field Placement (See Appendices A-9);

4. Generalist students are assigned to an agency by the program's field director. The primary basis for these assignments is information provided by the student on an application for field placement but the field director also may rely on ancillary information (e.g. information the student already has provided in her/his application to the MSW program and information shared in classes, if applicable). In completing the field application form, the student is invited to indicate the type of social work agency to which s/he would like to be assigned, but the program does not guarantee that the student’s assignment will match those preferences (See Appendices A-4 & A-5). Assignment to placement is solely the province of the program's Director of Field Placement;

5. Students are notified of their generalist assignments via e-mail, asking them to contact a specific person at the assigned agency to request an interview for placement with the agency. Generally this person is the field instructor who will be the student’s supervisor while in placement, but for some agencies the point of contact is a coordinator of interns. In making the assignment, the field director sends both the student and the prospective field instructor (or coordinator of interns) a packet containing forms to be sent back to the field director following the interview (See Appendices A-6). For the agency, this form allows them to indicate whether they feel the placement can proceed or if they feel the matter needs further consideration, whereas the student form asks the student to document when and where s/he is to report on the first day of placement as well as requirements to which the student must attend prior to beginning placement (e.g., background check, physical exam, TB test, orientation);

6. Based on this interview, if neither the instructor nor the student strongly objects to moving forward, the student formally is assigned to that agency/institution for placement. Students may then want to contact the faculty liaison to the respective agency/institution in order to learn more about the placement;

7. When the placement plan is not acceptable either to the student or to the agency/institution, these concerns should be brought to the attention of the Director of Field Placement, who has the responsibility of addressing these concerns. Even in these situations, however, assignment to placement remains solely the province of the program's Director of Field Placement;

8. The process of assignment for specialization placements differs in that students have more voice in selecting the agency at which they would like to do placement. The field director still is charged with making the actual assignment, but students have the opportunity to interview with more than one placement site and both student and agency preferences are given strong consideration in deciding which student will be assigned to which agency. Again, assignments are done via e-mail but, in most cases, this is done following the interview process, not preceding it. Although students are more involved in selecting the agency at which they will do their concentration placement, assignment to placement remains solely the province of the program’s Director of Field Placement;
9. In the interest of assuring a well-rounded social work education, students are not allowed to do their specialization placement at the same agency at which they did their generalist placement. In that same interest of assuring a well-rounded social work experience, students admitted to the advanced standing program (when that option becomes available) will not be allowed to do their placement at the same agency at which they did an undergraduate placement. (Please note: various programs within the same agency are not to be considered separate placement sites).

10. Possible impact of a misdemeanor or felony record on students pursuing field placement: A misdemeanor or felony conviction may impact your internship and employment prospects, because many agencies and employers request criminal records of their prospective interns and hires. In addition, a conviction may impact your ability to secure liability insurance as an intern/professional as well as licensure upon graduation from an accredited social work program. Below are the identified practices of the NASW, liability companies, and the Tennessee Board of Social Workers:

NASW – A conviction does not prevent a student from being able to apply and be accepted into the NASW.

Liability Insurance - Will consider liability insurance for a student or professional with a felony/misdemeanor conviction on a case by case basis. They do not guarantee approval.

TN Board of Social Workers – A student with a conviction must provide a letter of explanation and documents form jurisdiction with disposition indicated. The board will review and consider each application on a case by case basis.

Selection of Field Instructors:

Anyone selected to serve as field instructor must hold a Master’s Degree in Social Work from a CSWE-accredited program. The Department of Social Work also prefers the instructor have at least two years of post-MSW practice experience. Those who indicate an interest in serving as field instructors are asked to complete an informational form on which they document their academic credentials and professional background.

The program foresees rare situations in which an agency might not be able to provide student supervision by an instructor who holds a CSWE-accredited social work degree (e.g., a field instructor leaves the agency in the middle of the placement and is replaced by someone other than a social worker). In these cases, a member of the social work faculty, in close collaboration with the agency, will be asked to provide such supervision. These situations would be exceptions to standard practice.

Field instructors should be comfortable teaching from a conceptual standpoint as well as training students to perform specific tasks. Persons serving as field instructors are expected to have demonstrated a high level of skill with respect to communication and practice, as well as being committed to the education of students. Prior experience in supervision is desirable.
Those selected as field instructors also must express a willingness to participate in all aspects of the field program as outlined in this manual – attending pertinent training sessions, corresponding with the faculty liaison and Director of Field Placement, providing meaningful student supervision, and completing forms (e.g., the learning agreement, performance evaluations, and signing off on time logs) necessary to substantiate the field education process.
ETHICS AND VALUES IN FIELD INSTRUCTION

Social work is a profession that is organized around the assumption that people have a right to the social services necessary for a good quality of life and that society has a corresponding responsibility to provide these services. In this capacity, social work is responsible for providing services designed to enhance the functioning of individuals, families, groups, and larger systems in relation to intra- and inter-personal factors, as well as to environmental components that impinge upon their lives. These services are based on the philosophy, the body of knowledge, and the methodologies for practice promoted by the social work profession.

Practice in social work addresses the person-in-situation with a clearly defined understanding of the interdependence between the individual and society. Students are encouraged to develop consistent patterns of respect for the commitment of the profession to serving populations-at-risk – e.g., consideration of issues related to race, gender, ethnicity, culture, age, class, religion, sexual orientation, and disability.

Although each client is a unique person with different life experiences, there also is acknowledgment that there are common human needs that must be addressed in social work practice. To this end, field placement students must demonstrate an ability to analyze, formulate, and advocate for social welfare policies that impact the client population(s) with whom they are working and to explore ways in which they can address the broader societal and global concerns that contribute to their clients' areas of need.

Students are taught to assess and intervene in the lives of their clients using the ethics and values that guide the profession. Prior to beginning field placement, students study and discuss the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) (See http://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/default.asp). In response to their study of the code, students are required to sign a form, indicating their willingness to adhere to the principles outlined in the code throughout their field practicum.

Students are encouraged to reflect on the values and ethics that have been taught within the classroom setting as these concerns now become an integral part of their practice in the field placement. Discussions are facilitated in the concomitant field seminar (of the generalist year) intended to help students to see the utility of the Code of Ethics and the importance of applying social work values and ethics to casework situations.

Emphasis is given in the placement to issues of self-determination, the client's right to participate in the helping process, and to confidentiality. In looking at what techniques and policies hamper the client's self-determination, the social work student is encouraged to become an advocate for the client. Additionally in his/her role as client advocate, the student works toward the protection of the client’s individual rights, particularly the client’s right to confidentiality. As part of this role, it is incumbent upon the social work student to inform the client of those times when confidentiality will not be maintained – e.g., when there is a serious suicide threat/attempt, when threats against others occur, or when legal requirements to report abuse of any nature are met.
Professional Conduct:

Students enrolled in the Master of Social Work program must conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner toward clients, students, faculty, and staff. Professional conduct is expected at all times.

The Department of Social Work, through its faculty and appropriate committees, reserves the discretionary right to recommend dismissal from the program of any student who exhibits failure to maintain appropriate personal conduct or professional standards and ethics. Any act that would constitute unethical practice, professional misconduct, or violations of the law (whether committed in college-related activities or not) may be ground for disciplinary action – up to and including dismissal from the program. The NASW Code of Ethics and The University of Memphis Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities serve as guidelines and standards for professional conduct both on- and off-campus.

In their role as social work educators, the members of the faculty of the Department of Social Work are charged with a gate-keeping function in which they are responsible for assessing the professional “fit” of those who are seeking to join the profession – measured in regard to the student’s skills and knowledge levels, but also by consistent ethical competence. In light of that charge, students should understand that if there is evidence of the student's lack of professional preparedness and/or ethics, the Department of Social Work may recommend the student be dismissed from the MSW program. Such a lack could include, but is not limited to, the following examples:

1. Documented behavior that is inconsistent with the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Social Workers;
2. Documented problems in behavior or performance, which raise questions from the faculty or field instructor about the student’s suitability for professional social work. Such problems could include, but are not limited to, the following list of behaviors:
   a. Inappropriate behaviors and/or communications with client(s);
   b. Forced or coerced sexual behavior with client(s);
   c. Sexual activity with client(s) including, but not limited to, kissing, fondling, or sexual intercourse;
   d. Physical aggression, such as hitting, spanking, or slapping, directed at client(s), student(s), faculty or staff member(s);
   e. Physical or emotional threats directed toward client(s), student(s), faculty or staff member(s);
   f. Acceptance of gifts or money (not considered standard payment for services) from client(s). Students shall not ask for, or accept, gifts from client(s);
   g. Illegal or unethical behavior that limits or takes away client(s)’ rights or results in financial, material, or emotional loss for client(s) or gain for the social work student; and/or
   h. Sexual harassment of client(s).
3. Plagiarism, cheating, or any other form of academic dishonesty or disruption;
4. Failure of the student to maintain a 3.0 GPA beyond one semester of academic probation;
5. Failure to follow policies and rules as outlined in the MSW Student Handbook, the MSW Field Manual, or the University of Memphis Student Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities;
6. Failure to comply with policies and procedures of the professional agency; and/or
7. Non-attendance at the clinical site.
Concerns about unethical behavior will be addressed by the MSW program retention committee. If the unethical behavior occurs in regard to academic processes other than field placement, the program retention committee will consist of: 1) the student’s advisor, 2) the classroom instructor, and 3) one additional faculty member. If the unethical behavior occurs in regard to field placement, the program retention committee will consist of: 1) the student’s advisor, 2) the MSW Director of Field Placement, and 3) the faculty liaison. If the unethical behavior occurs in regard to a student organization event, the program retention committee will consist of: 1) the student’s advisor, 2) the faculty liaison to the student organization, and 3) another faculty member.

The program retention committee will review oral and written reports of the student’s unethical behavior. The student will be given the opportunity to address the committee. The committee will deliberate and decide whether or not to recommend dismissal of the student. If a decision is made to recommend dismissal, the student will be given a letter explaining the rationale behind the decision. The Department of Social Work will then follow University policies and procedures for dismissal by referring the student's case to either the Associate Dean for Graduate Studies and Research in the College of Arts and Sciences or to the Student Judicial Affairs Committee, as indicated.

Students who wish to appeal a recommendation of dismissal must first write a letter of appeal to the MSW Program Coordinator. If the dispute is not resolved to the student’s satisfaction by the MSW Program Coordinator, the student must follow the grievance procedures of the Graduate School as outlined in the Graduate Catalog.

Professional Boundaries:

In their work with clients, students are reminded that they are to maintain professional boundaries at all times. This provision includes, but is not limited to:

- Refraining from engagement in any type of dual relationship with a client;
- Refraining from giving clients his/her cell phone number; and/or
- Refraining from giving clients access to the student’s social media sites.

Sexual Harassment:

Harassment is reprehensible and will not be tolerated by the University. It subverts the mission of the University and threatens the careers, educational experience, and wellbeing of students, faculty, and staff. Incidents involving sexual harassment or racial harassment have no place within the University, nor in its programs (e.g. field practicum). In both obvious and subtle ways, even a suggestion of sexual or racial harassment is destructive to individual students, faculty, staff and the academic community as a whole. When through fear, or reprisal, a student, staff member, or faculty member submits or is pressured to submit to unwanted sexual attention, the University's ability to carry out its mission is undermined.

While sexual harassment most often takes place in situations of a power differential between the persons involved, the University also recognizes that sexual harassment may occur between persons of the same status. The University will not tolerate harassment between or among members of the University or its programs.

Sexual harassment and racial harassment have been held to constitute forms of discrimination prohibited by Title VI, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended and Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. The University may be held liable pursuant to Title VI or Title VII and/or lose federal funds pursuant to Title IX for failure to properly investigate and remedy claims of sexual or racial harassment.

The University is committed to ensuring equality in education and eliminating any and all acts of sexual misconduct from its campus. Sexual misconduct includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can make a report to the Office for Institutional Equity at oie@memphis.edu or 901.678.2713. Please note that if you make a report to university faculty, they required to report it. If you want to make a confidential report you can contact the University Counseling Center, 214 Wilder Tower, 901.678.2068.

Academic Conduct

Graduate students at the University of Memphis are expected to observe the regulations and policies that govern the behavior of students as members of this academic community. These regulations and policies are published in the MSW Student Handbook. In particular, graduate students should become familiar with the University's policies on plagiarism in its various forms. Furthermore, term papers may not be used to meet the requirements of more than one course unless approved in advance by both instructors.

The University of Memphis Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities defines academic misconduct as all acts of cheating, plagiarism, forgery, and falsification.

The term “cheating” includes, but is not limited to:

- Using any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes or tests;
- Using sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments;
- Acquiring tests or other academic material before such material is revealed or distributed by the instructor;
- Misrepresenting papers, reports, assignments or other materials as the product of a student’s sole independent effort when this is not the case;
- Failing to abide by the instructions of the proctor concerning test-taking procedures;
- Influencing, or attempting to influence, any university employee in order to affect a student’s grade or evaluation; and/or
- Any forgery, alteration, unauthorized possession, or misuse of university documents.

The term plagiarism includes but is not limited to the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full or clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Academic misconduct also includes furnishing false information to a University official, faculty member, or office; or the forgery, alteration, or misuse of any University document, record, or instrument of identification. The Academic Discipline Committee, a standing University committee appointed by the President, addresses allegations of academic misconduct.
POLICIES AND PROCEDURES (GENERAL)

The student in field practice has a responsibility to perform in the same professional manner as an employed staff member and is expected to follow agency policies and abide by the rules and regulations of the agency as well as those of the Department of Social Work. These responsibilities include:

1. Protecting the confidentiality of all information about clients;
2. Observing agency working hours;
3. Being at the agency when assigned to be so;
4. Being on time for the placement and punctual in completion of assignments;
5. Being available for client emergencies if at all possible, even if these occur after regular hours;
6. Completing and submitting activity reports in a timely fashion;
7. Notifying the field instructor in advance (if possible) of unavoidable absences or tardiness; and
8. Making up time for absences and tardiness.

As a general rule, students spend only the required number of hours per week in field practice and reserve the other time for classroom courses and study. Classroom work should not be done during field practice and, ordinarily, students should not be asked to fulfill field obligations during class time. A student who works overtime in field practice for client emergencies or special projects may arrange with the field instructor to take time off for necessary academic work.

Some agencies may prefer that students spread the required field hours over more than two days per week in order to provide client coverage, and some students with part-time jobs or child care responsibilities may request some flexibility in scheduling for field practice. The Department of Social Work has no objection to any arrangement that provides the necessary learning experiences, meets the requirement for hours of field practice, is satisfactory to the agency and student, and insures good service to clients. Similarly, students who wish to be involved in placement between the semesters of the practicum year (i.e., between SWRK 7051 and 7052, or between SWRK 7053 and 7054) may do so only with the agency’s approval. In such instances, the student's time can be credited toward the following semester, but the student must remain engaged in placement throughout the entirety of the subsequent semester.

There are opportunities for students to obtain extra field hours by participating in university-sponsored activities and community-based social work activities (ex. Social Work Day on the Hill, Critical Conversations, Field Agency Fair, U of M research, professional conferences, online trainings, health fairs, advocacy, crisis hotline, etc.). Students are allowed to accrue 25 volunteer hours per semester toward these university-sponsored activities and community-based social work based opportunities. These activities must be documented separately from their field hours.

Communication

An e-mail account is available free of charge to University of Memphis students. This UoM account will be the official contact used for all Department of Social Work correspondence. If the student elects to use another e-mail service, s/he must obtain an account through the university and forward her/his mail to the personal account. Much correspondence is conveyed to students via email so the account should be checked frequently.

Students are asked to ensure that the Department office has a current e-mail address, mailing address and telephone number. The success of this degree program depends partly on the department’s ability to foster ties to its students, alumni, and the larger community. Students can update their contact information by informing the Department of Social Work administrative assistant of any changes.

Holidays

Students are entitled to observe holidays listed on the University of Memphis calendar and to holidays and hazardous weather closings observed by the agency — even when these fall on field practice days. However the student remains responsible for making up these hours at some other time such that s/he completes the required number of hours for the placement.

Professional Liability Insurance:

All students enrolled in field placement are responsible for procuring liability insurance (with a minimum coverage of 1,000,000/5,000,000) prior to the beginning of field placement. Coverage can be obtained through the National Association of Social Workers Assurance Services (see Appendices A-3 for information pertaining to this insurance). The student must provide the Director of Field Placement a copy of the certificate of coverage, verifying her/his purchase of the insurance, prior to beginning placement.

Transportation

Students are responsible for their own transportation to and from the agency. If transportation is a problem, the student should communicate this to the Director of Field Placement. Some agencies pay mileage for travel required to perform agency work. Students should ask their field instructor about mileage reimbursement if required to travel. Arrangements regarding mileage reimbursement are strictly between the agency and the student; neither the University of Memphis, nor the Department of Social Work, has any standing in such arrangements. Students who drive must have a valid, current driver's license and automobile liability insurance.

Due to liability concerns (i.e., to be sure that s/he is covered to do so), any student who transports clients in her/his personal vehicle must, at the beginning of the placement, inform the provider of her/his automobile insurance that s/he is using the vehicle for internship. If s/he is asked to transport clients in an agency vehicle, s/he is to meet all requirements for licensing and insurance coverage designated by the agency prior to providing transportation. Students who drive (or ride) in a vehicle in performance of their field responsibilities — whether transporting clients or not — should be aware that they are not covered for this activity under the university’s insurance.

Financial Remuneration:

Some agencies may provide reimbursement for travel or other expenses in carrying out agency business, or may offer a stipend or salary in exchange for the services the student provides. Arrangements regarding stipends and reimbursement of expenses are strictly between the agency and the student; neither the University of Memphis, nor the Department of Social Work, has any standing in such arrangements.
Use of Job as Practicum Site:

Students currently employed in a social service agency/institution or human service organization may complete their field practicum in their current job only if specific conditions are met. Approval of plans by the Director of Field Placement is required before the start of the practicum. Specific restrictions include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Students are allowed to use their place of employment as a field placement site but can do so for only one of their two placement experiences, and only if that agency meets all requirements for serving as a placement site (including, in the case of the concentration year, if that agency is suitable for the competencies specific to advanced practice);

2. The field instruction experience must be distinct from the student’s normal work activities and must be evaluated separately from those activities;

3. The student must be supervised by someone who is not his/her regular work supervisor. This instructor must meet the usual requirements of field instruction – i.e., someone who holds a MSW degree with at least 1-2 years of post-graduate experience in the field of social work;

4. The hours credited toward field placement must be distinct from the student’s employment hours (which will be gathered through the completion of the Student Request to use Employment as Field form); and

5. Assignment to placement remains solely the province of the program’s Director of Field Placement.

Disability Services:

Students with disabilities are encouraged to notify Student Disability Services for reasonable accommodations. Students must follow established university procedures for obtaining accommodations and services. Specific accommodations and services are determined on an individual basis and are based on documented functional limitations resulting from the disability.

Equal Opportunity:

The University of Memphis, a Tennessee Board of Regents institution, offers equal opportunity to all persons without regard to race, religion, sex, creed, color, national origin or disability. The University does not discriminate on these bases in recruitment and admission of students or in the operation of its programs and activities, as specified by federal laws and regulations. Designated coordinators for University compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 are the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Equal Opportunity Compliance Officer. Information in this document will be provided in alternate format upon request. The University of Memphis is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action University. It is committed to education of a non-racially identifiable student body.
ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Responsibilities of the Department of Social Work:

In the partnership between itself and the cooperating field agencies/institutions, the Department of Social Work will execute the following responsibilities:

1. Design the curriculum, establish a framework for outcome measurement (competencies), determine the "norm" of expected content of field instruction (including, but not limited to, assignments), and share these with those who provide field instruction;

2. Conduct workshops and periodic meetings for field instructors and/or students to ensure understanding of the material(s) and its use in a way that achieves the goals of the program and the particularized learning needs of the student;

3. Arrange meetings, seminars, and/or workshops for field instructors to orient, train, and coordinate class content and field practice. These times also serve to further the development of the teaching skills of the field instructors. Such sessions also are used to familiarize field instructors with current concepts and theories in social work;

4. Recruit and make decisions regarding the acceptance of field instruction agencies and the placement of students in these agencies;

5. Evaluate the field instruction agency/institution’s commitment to, and ability to provide, a good experience of the profession of social work;

6. Provide faculty who act as liaisons to serve as mediators between the Department of Social Work and the agency/institution regarding their respective needs, to monitor the student’s performance, and to proactively solve problems that may arise; and

7. Arrange practice seminars for students in order to better prepare them for entrance into practice, and hold ongoing meetings with special emphasis on the use of the overall educational experience in the field placement.

Responsibilities of the Director of Field Placement:

The Director of Field Placement is responsible to the MSW Program Coordinator, and by extension to the Chair of the Department of Social Work. This person has primary responsibility for the practicum component of the social work program which includes implementation of field processes and procedures, development of good field sites, and maintaining effective working relationships with placement sites, field instructors, faculty, and students. The responsibilities of the Director of Field Placement are to:

1. Develop policies, procedures, and competencies for the field courses: Generalist Field Placement I (SWRK 7051), Generalist Field Placement II (SWRK 7052), Specialization Field Placement III (SWRK 7053), Specialization Field Placement IV (SWRK 7054), Integrative Field Seminar I (SWRK 7055), and Integrative Field Seminar II (SWRK 7056);
2. Develop field placements by negotiating with appropriate agencies in the community that can provide a well-rounded social work field experience for the student;

3. Work with the agency/institution administrators concerning the selection and approval of field instructors, and the maintenance of ongoing communication with agencies concerning the implementation of the field program;

4. Provide orientation and other opportunities for field instructors to become familiar with the overall curriculum of the Department of Social Work, including trends and changes in course content, and to participate in the ongoing assessment and development of the overall field program;

5. Plan seminars and meetings of field instructors in order to develop the quality of teaching in the field and strengthen the performance of the field instructors as educators;

6. Arrange meetings with interested student applicants to discuss the goals of the field practicum, the agencies/institutions available as placement sites, and policies and procedures for beginning placement;

7. Coordinate planning for the placement of students in agency/institution settings, and assign students to the designated field sites;

8. Assign a faculty liaison to work with the field instructor and student in relation to the student's field performance;

9. In cooperation with the field instructor and the faculty liaison, evaluate the student’s performance in the field and assign an appropriate grade for his/her completion of the field placement;

10. Provide an opportunity for students to evaluate their field experience, and in cooperation with the faculty liaisons, evaluate and assess the agencies that participate in the field instruction program; and

11. In cooperation with the coordinator of the MSW program, develop, and revise as needed, the policies and procedures for field practicum. Similarly, maintain, and modify as necessary, the field manual.

Responsibilities of the Faculty Liaison:

The faculty liaison serves as a consultant to field instructors and ensures the educational integrity of the field experience for his/her respective students. The faculty liaison also serves as a mediator/problem solver when conflicts may arise between the agency and/or the field instructor and the student. The responsibilities of the faculty liaison are to:

1. Advise students with regard to what they are learning in their field placements. This includes direct contact with the student during each semester in order to review progress and to evaluate the adequacy of the learning experience;

2. Represent the MSW program of the University of Memphis Department of Social Work to the administration, field instructors, and other significant staff of the agency/institution, and act as the liaison between the agency/institution and the Department of Social Work;
3. Consult with the field instructor in relation to learning opportunities available to students, problems in the placement, and overall evaluation of the student’s performance;

4. Perform a minimum of one site visit per semester to each agency/institution for which s/he serves as faculty liaison and document visit via the Faculty Liaison Consult Form (See Appendices B-2);

5. Communicate with the field instructor during the course of the semester in order to serve as a mediator between the Department of Social Work and the agency/institution regarding their respective needs, to monitor the student’s performance, and to proactively solve problems that may arise;

6. In collaboration with the field instructor, assess the student’s performance. If the student's performance is considered marginal during the semester, the liaison arranges a meeting with the student and the field instructor to discuss the situation and to help the student and instructor to use the teaching/learning experience more effectively. If the difficulty cannot be resolved, the liaison refers the matter to the Director of Field Placement; and

7. Provide an evaluation of the field placement at the end of the semester and make recommendations about placement planning with the respective agency/institution for subsequent semesters.

Responsibilities of the Field Instruction Agency:

Agencies play a vital role in the education of social work students. It is through the agency/institution experience that the student comes to grips with the reality of working with people experiencing problems. Through this process, the student learns to test his/her knowledge and skills. It is important that agencies create an atmosphere for learning and provide a means through which students can begin to identify with the values and objectives of the social work profession. In order to afford a well-rounded educational experience for students, the agency/institution (as represented by its administration) assumes responsibility for the following:

1. Contract with the Department of Social Work via the clinical affiliation agreement to work mutually with the department in providing the student(s) with a good field experience of the social work profession;

2. Select qualified field instructors and allow time in their schedules for teaching responsibilities;

3. Provide adequate physical space and facilities for the student to function effectively;

4. Provide appropriate learning experiences, including orientation to the agency/institution and the community in which the agency operates, as well as in-person contact with clients or constituencies;

5. Demonstrate a commitment to the values and ethics of the social work profession, including provision for confidentiality of records;

6. Commit to the education of social workers at the graduate level and work collaboratively with the Department of Social Work in developing the field instruction program; and

7. Discuss the progress of the student with the faculty liaison and/or Director of Field Placement and maintain close contact with the Department of Social Work should problems occur in regard to the student's field performance.
Responsibilities of the Field Instructor:

The major function in field instruction is teaching through practice. The field instructor provides the support and experience through which students can develop, test, and demonstrate the degree of their integration of social work knowledge, principles, and methods. In doing so, the field instructor assumes primary responsibility for the student's education in the placement setting. This involves locating appropriate assignments which enable the student to achieve the program's educational objectives, sharing knowledge, providing regular feedback to students, writing formal evaluations and enabling the student to evaluate self. The role of field instructor requires a basic commitment to the teaching role and commitment to development of the profession of social work.

In his/her role as educator, the field instructor will execute the following responsibilities:

1. Provide the Department of Social Work with information regarding her/his academic background and a current resume relative to acting as an instructor for social work students (See Appendices B-1);

2. Familiarize him/herself with the educational philosophy of the Department of Social Work and with the content of the social work curriculum which the student already has taken or currently is taking. At times, the field instructor may be called upon to teach specific content material for students to fulfill a particular field assignment when this content has not yet been covered in the classroom;

3. Attend an orientation, if new to the role, which will help the instructor become familiar with his/her responsibility in taking on this role, educational requirements of the field process, the design of the learning experience, what to do regarding early identification of problems, and the curriculum of the Department of Social Work;

4. Attend training sessions at the university throughout the year. Field instructors who do not attend the orientation, or who habitually miss training sessions, may be asked to discontinue the responsibility of field instruction;

5. Conduct an orientation for the student to help her/him prepare adequately for her/his field practice. This orientation includes, but is not limited to:
   a. Policies and procedures of the agency/institution;
   b. Composition of the community and the clientele served;
   c. The role of the agency/institution in the community; its relation to the community resources most often used;
   d. Societal factors that may impact the clientele of the agency/institution;
   e. Content regarding cultural diversity and discrimination that may affect the agency/institution's clientele;
   f. Responsibilities of the student to the client, as well as to the agency/institution;
   g. Mutual roles of the field instructor and the student in the field setting;
h. The practical models most frequently employed for direct practice and measures used for evaluation of practice; and
i. Codes of conduct and office rules – e.g., dress codes, punctuality, absenteeism.

6. Arrange a schedule that makes time available for weekly supervision meetings. This includes a weekly conference with each student of at least one (1) hour and sufficient time to prepare for supervision;

7. Negotiate and mutually develop a learning agreement with the student early in the course of the placement that guides the learning experience and serves as a point of reference for subsequent evaluations. Said learning agreement is to be based in the competencies on which the student will be evaluated at the end of each semester;

8. Monitor the time and activities of the student while in placement and sign off on the logs the student submits in reporting on her/his time and activities;

9. Make available to the student relevant materials and arrange time for conferences with the faculty liaison and/or the Director of Field Placement. In these meetings, the field instructor should be prepared to discuss the student's progress, learning difficulties, and performance in the respective placement;

10. Consult with the faculty liaison regarding the student’s performance in the placement, including problems that need attention; and

11. Prepare an evaluation of the student's performance near the end of each semester and discuss this with the student in a mutual process. The field instructor will complete this evaluation and other statistical reports to the Director of Field Placement according to designated timelines and/or deadlines. If the student objects to anything in the evaluation, s/he has the right to submit those objections to the Director of Field Placement (with copies being submitted to the faculty liaison and the field instructor as well) (See Appendices D-1; D-3).

Responsibilities of the Student in Field Placement:

The student is an adult learner preparing for a professional career. As such, s/he is expected to exhibit a serious commitment to the learning process, a capacity for self-evaluation, willingness to change one's ways of thinking, feeling, and acting, and openness to respond to suggestions and directions offered by the professionals who are assisting in the field process. Although students learn in different ways and at varying rates, all students are expected to take responsibility for their own learning. In addition, by accepting placement at an agency/institution, the student agrees to adhere to the mission of the agency/institution and to serve the clientele of the agency/institution in the most professional manner possible.

The following are student responsibilities deemed appropriate to field placement, and while not conclusive, are basic for carrying out active participation in the learning process:

1. The student is considered an adult learner. In this role, s/he is to take responsibility for the learning process in which s/he is engaged. The field placement assignment is to be treated as though it were an employment experience – i.e., the student is to be there as assigned, be on time, dress appropriately, respect the agency/institution staff, mission, policies and procedures, etc.;

2. The required number of hours for a scheduled field day is 8 hours but can vary according to the schedule of the assigned agency/institution. In no instance should a student plan for less than four (4) hours at-a-time at the field site. The exceptions to this are illness of the student, or important personal matters, that require one to leave the site unexpectedly. Such absences should not happen regularly, and should become matter for corrective action if this privilege is abused;

3. Appropriate use of field placement hours includes preparation done for contact with the client(s), summaries done for agency/institution purposes, staff conferences, supervisory sessions, other meetings that are part of the learning experience, travel time to and from client contacts, and work on related seminar assignments;

4. Students can follow the calendar of the university regarding holidays, etc. However, it is vitally important that students coordinate any planned absences with the field instructor and prepare the client(s) sufficiently regarding these breaks. Also, the student remains responsible for making up these hours at some other time such that s/he completes the required number of hours for each semester of the placement;

5. Students are allowed to serve in placement during holidays and breaks in the academic schedule if they and the field instructor work out such an agreement;

6. The student is responsible for securing membership in the National Association of Social Workers (NASW). S/he also is responsible for becoming familiar with the NASW Code of Ethics and expected to act in a manner consistent with that code in the practicum. The student is asked to sign an agreement form early in the semester indicating his/her willingness to abide by the Code of Ethics (See Appendices A-7 & A-9);

7. The student is responsible for procuring liability insurance (with minimum coverage of 1,000,000/5,000,000) prior to beginning the placement and providing the Director of Field Placement with a copy of the Certificate of Coverage (See Appendices A-9);

8. The student will participate with the field instructor in the process of developing a learning agreement that outlines the activities in which s/he is to be engaged while in placement. Said learning agreement is to be based in the competencies on which the student will be evaluated at the end of each semester (See Appendices C-1 & C-2);

9. The student is to regularly (every 1-2 weeks) complete reports that document the time and activities in which s/he has been engaged while in placement for the respective period of time (See Appendices C-3);

10. The student is to dress appropriately as a representative of the profession. This code of dress may differ from one agency to the next or from one task to another, but the student should discuss these requirements with her/his field instructor and comply with the standards of the agency;

11. Students in the generalist and specialization years of placement must attend the concomitant seminar class and complete all assignments pertaining to the seminar. The student assumes responsibility for all commitments made with clients, colleagues, and other significant people in relation to service provision. The student must inform the instructor/supervisor when an emergency precludes the fulfillment of these commitments;

12. Using experiences from their respective placements, students are to maintain an online journal which reflects their reactions to issues raised in their work with clients, agency professionals, and peers;

13. Within the student/instructor relationship, it is appropriate for the student to look to the field instructor for advancement of knowledge, skills, and techniques, and in the development of self-awareness. It is the student’s responsibility to be prepared for all supervisory sessions, including submitting issues and concerns in writing prior to the meeting in order that the supervision time can be used optimally;

14. The student should freely communicate his/her educational needs and interests to the field instructor. This includes talking with the field instructor about too much or not enough work, interest in learning about and being involved in other services that the agency placement offers, and any or all areas of the field learning experience;

15. The student is to meet at least once-a-week with the field instructor in order to discuss his/her learning in the placement. This is to provide a forum in which s/he can discuss performance and professional growth issues, questions about the agency/institution’s procedures, and questions regarding the particular site/clientele that is served;

16. The student is to communicate with the faculty liaison during the semester in order to keep him/her informed of progress in the field placement;

17. The student is to take the initiative, through the usual lines of communication, to protest the abuse of any person requesting or receiving services from a given agency/institution. Similarly, s/he is to act in a manner commensurate with the professional code of ethics if individuals or groups within the community abuse the rights of people seeking services and/or assistance;

18. The student is responsible for preparing clients appropriately for termination. S/he must have work assignments up to date before leaving the agency/institution and must inform the field instructor of these activities, as well as those matters that remain pending with respect to client service; and

19. The student is to complete an evaluation of his/her competence to the Director of Field Placement at the end of each year of placement (See Appendices D-2; D-4).

Please carefully read the information below

MSW Field Placement

Field placement is an important component of the Master of Social Work program and is designed to integrate academic learning with “real world” social work experience. An internship placement provides opportunities for the student to apply concepts and skills learned in the classroom in a real-world work setting and to build a work history of relevant experience that will assist the student in beginning her/his social work career.

At the University of Memphis, the field internship consists of four courses: Two courses for the generalist (generalist) level, SWRK 7051 and 7052; and four courses for the advanced (specialization) level, SWRK 7053, 7054, 7055, 7056. For the generalist placement (SWRK 7051 and 7052), students are assigned to an agency in the community by the MSW Director of Field Placement. For the specialization placement (SWRK 7053 and 7054), students have more voice in selecting the agency to which they are assigned, but the assignment ultimately is made by the MSW Director of Field Placement.

Students who want to do field placement at their place of employment, must consult with the MSW Director of Field Placement. Several provisions pertain to such a request:

- In such situations, the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) mandates that the student have different responsibilities, a different supervisor, and different hours, than for his/her regular job position;
- The work of the agency and the qualifications of the prospective field instructor must meet the requirements of the Department of Social Work;
- The student can only do one of her/his placements at the place of employment – i.e., either the foundation year or the advanced year, but not both; and
- In deciding which year of placement they want to do at their place of employment, students should remember that, during the second year (the advanced year), they will have to display competence in working with children and families. If this is not feasible at the respective agency, they should opt for doing their first year (the foundation year) at their place of employment.

Each field course will be worth 3 credit hours, but the actual field hours in the agency will vary from one semester to the next. Basically, the student will be engaged in field 16 hours per week during the first year of placement (SWRK 7051 and 7052) and 20 hours per week during the second year (SWRK 7053 and 7054).

Grades for field placement will be assigned by the MSW Director of Field Placement but will be based largely on the evaluation of the field instructor at the agency to which the student is assigned for placement. Also, as part of the field course, students will meet in small groups for several seminars per semester (at the university or another designated site) as well as participating in online communication (e.g., electronic journals, discussion boards, performance evaluations). The student’s participation in the seminars and online communication is intended to foster the learning experience involved in doing field placement and is included as a factor in determining the student’s grade.

Student Responsibilities:
1) Make contact with the agency within 2 business days
2) Schedule an interview within 2 weeks
3) Return the Student Response to Interview within 24 hours of the interview
4) Purchase/renew a student membership with the National Association of Social Workers (NASW)
5) Purchase/renew student liability insurance through the NASW and provide a copy of the certificate

Agency Responsibilities:
1) Review the enclosed Interview Packet
2) Return the Agency Response to Interview form within 24 hours of the interview

It is essential to return the enclosed forms within 24 hours of the interview date. We cannot continue the placement process at another agency until we know the outcome of the current interview.
INTERVIEW TOPICS

We have found that placements are most successful for both students and field instructors when expectations, needs, and opportunities are clarified in the initial interview. When issues arise, they often stem from a lack of communication about expectations, make sure you are both on the same page (please do not assume you are). We hope that discussing these topics will be helpful to you in beginning a meaningful and mutually satisfying student/field instructor relationship. Please take this document with you to review during the interview.

Discuss student career interests, professional goals, and learning needs:
Discuss mandatory trainings/orientations. Orientations prior to or conducted at the beginning of the field placement, can count toward field placement hours. Please contact the Director of Field Placement to request any exceptions.

Screenings/References:
Please discuss all necessary requirements with your agency at the interview. It is important to clarify if the agency has any additional requirements such as specialized screenings (i.e. criminal background checks, drug screenings) or immunizations and any costs that students may incur. Some agencies may also require Letters of Reference or an application.

Conflicts of Interest:
Does the agency have a policy that may restrict accepting a MSW intern (i.e. if an intern/and or their immediate family member received services from agency, no smoking policy, etc.)?

Student Hours:
- Agree upon a specific student field placement schedule (i.e. days and hours)
- Generally, students have been expected to be in field placement for 6-8 hours a day. Students are allowed a half-hour for lunch that is not counted toward field.
- Students may need to flex their hours and may not be in field for 6-8 consecutive hours. In these cases, an alternate schedule may be developed between the student and the field instructor. Our expectation is that students will be at placement during hours that preserve the integrity of their learning, never less than 3-hour shifts.

Field Calendar:
- MSW students must obtain 400 hours over two semesters (Sem 1 SWRK 7051 – 160 hours; Sem 2 SWRK 7052 – 240 hours) in First Year field
- MSW students must obtain 560 hours over two semesters (Sem 1 SWRK 7053 – 280 hours; Sem 2 SWRK 7054 – 280 hours) in Second Year of field
For a total of 960 hours prior to graduation

Semester Calendar
“Students are entitled to observe holidays listed on the University of Memphis calendar and to holidays and hazardous weather closings observed by the agency – even when these fall on field practice days. However the student remains responsible for making up these hours at some other time such that s/he completes the required number of hours for the placement.”
Although they are not required to, we do encourage students to work at their internships between semesters and during holidays in an effort to obtain the required hours. Students are allowed to modify their regular schedule, with permission from the agency, between semesters and during the holidays.

Summer Block  May 2 – August 5
Please note that First-Year Full-Time students cannot begin their internship until early October, after they have completed SWRK 7001 – Skills for Professional Practice. Prior to October, first-year students are allowed to attend agency/program orientation, trainings, complete background checks, etc.

Important Message Regarding Start Date: Students are officially allowed to begin their field placement in August. Prior to August, students are only allowed to complete background screenings, orientation, trainings, workshops, shadowing, etc., in preparation for officially beginning their internship.

Use of vehicles and any parking expenses:
- Due to liability issues, students are not allowed to transport clients in their vehicle or agency vehicle(s).
- Will the student need to use their own vehicle to travel between different agency sites or for home visits? Does the agency reimburse interns for mileage? Is there a fee for parking at or near the agency?

Population Served:
Agency Interviewers may want to share typical examples of populations and situations encountered in the agency’s setting. For example, this setting frequently deals with clients confronting death, suicide, sexual trauma, etc. Discussing experiences students have had in preparing to deal with these populations or situations as well as their comfort level may be helpful. However, please be mindful that it is generally inappropriate to discuss a student’s personal life experiences in the interview.

Agency Mission and Learning Experience:
We ask that agencies provide as much diversity in the range of experiences as possible for this placement. It is beneficial for the field instructor to share with the student typical examples of situations encountered in the field setting. Students will be better prepared for the placement if they are aware and can discuss any concerns about dealing with particular problem areas. Providing agency brochures or other information for the student to take to read is also helpful.

Learning and Supervisory Styles:
Awareness of differences or similarities from the start can be very helpful in terms of developing a good working relationship. It is not always necessary for the student and field instructor to have similar styles in terms of structure, preferred learning, and teaching styles (i.e. experiential, cognitive, etc.) to have a positive experience. Sometimes differences can cause a student to stretch and learn new ways of doing things. This discussion will be important when developing a learning agreement, but an initial recognition of the preferred style can help. Recognizing and respecting diversity is the key.

Dress code:
It is useful to clarify terms such as “casual” or “professional” as they may mean different things to different people. Please be specific (i.e. jacket and tie are required or dress is casual but no jeans or sneakers).

Establish a clear outcome:
Does the agency agree to the student? Does the student agree to the agency? If not, establish a date to know the outcome of the interview. Students are responsible to follow up. Clear communication between the student and the agency is very important.

Sample Questions for Students to Ask in Interview
1) What can the agency/field instructor provide in terms of learning opportunities?
2) What can I expect in terms of supervision? What is the supervisory style of the field educator?
3) What services does the agency provide? Find out as much as possible about the agency. Ask for brochures or any written material that might be available. Ask what activities or tasks will I be doing as a student?
4) What has their previous experiences been like with students? What seems to have worked well in terms of students/field instructors benefiting from the experience?
5) What, if any, resources are available at the agency (i.e. computer availability, in-service training opportunities)?

Sample Questions for Agency Interviewers to Ask

1) What are you looking for in terms of learning? Supervisory style?
2) What have you found particularly helpful, or not helpful, in supervisory or learning relationships in the past?
3) What might your field instructor do that you would find conducive to your learning? What would you probably find negative?
4) How do you deal with problems when they arise? For example, how do you think you would handle problems in the student/field instructor relationship, or how would you respond if you found that the learning opportunities were not meeting your needs? How could the practicum help you deal with these types of problems?
5) What have you found to be your strengths and weaknesses in working with others in teams?
6) What has your experience been in working with people in authority? What have your positive experiences been? What difficulties have you experienced?
7) Do you have any ideas about how you learn best? For example, are you more comfortable putting a lot of thought in before you face a new situation, or are you more comfortable acting first and reflecting in more detail later?

Ph: 800-742-4089 or 202-408-8600

Student membership costs $48

Liability Insurance Coverage

In order to begin field placement, the student must purchase/renew liability insurance coverage. Liability insurance during your field practicum is required and necessary for you to practice. Regardless of your setting (macro, mezzo or micro), helping others can put you at risk of being sued by someone dissatisfied with an outcome. You need professional liability coverage. Professional liability insurance protects social workers if they are sued for malpractice. Social workers need protection from frivolous lawsuits and from legal action due to negligent acts, errors and omissions that can arise from their practices. These lawsuits may even arise years later, after the alleged event took place. Without insurance, you could spend precious time and resources defending yourself, regardless of whether there is any merit to the claim. Professional liability insurance provides you with experienced legal defense and coverage for settlements or damages.

The minimum coverage to be purchased is the 1,000,000/5,000,000 option. The student must provide a copy of his/her certificate of coverage to the Director of Field Placement, verifying that the insurance is in place before the student can engage in any field activities.

Since the student is also required to join NASW, the professional organization for social workers, it is likely most cost effective for the student to purchase the liability insurance through the company contracted with NASW to provide such coverage. That company is:
The NASW has now formed their own malpractice insurance group called the NASW Risk Retention Group or RRG. To obtain liability insurance, please follow the following steps:

1. Purchase a student membership from NASW - www.socialworkers.org
2. Go to https://www.naswinsure.com
3. Select apply online and follow the directions
4. Please call 1-888.278.0038 if you have questions or encounter difficulty with the online process

The NASW offers only one option for students, the 1,000,000/5,000,000 option and it costs $15 for a one-year membership. This is much cheaper than the previous rate.

Upon completion of the interview, please complete the Student Response to Interview form and return it to me immediately. In addition, please ask the interviewer to complete and sign the Agency Response to Interview form. Please ask him/her to return this form to me as soon as possible. My e-mail address is lctylor1@memphis.edu. Our fax number is 901-678-2981.

Such compelling reasons would include when there is a serious suicide threat or attempt, when threats against others occur, or when legal requirements to report abuse of any nature are met.

Liability Insurance Coverage

In order to begin field placement, the student must purchase liability insurance coverage. The minimum coverage to be purchased is the 1,000,000/5,000,000 option. The student must provide a copy of his/her certificate of coverage to the director of field placement verifying that the insurance is in place before the student can engage in any field activities.

Since the student also is required to join NASW, the professional organization for social workers, it likely is most cost effective for the student to purchase the liability insurance through the company contracted with NASW to provide such coverage. That company is:

The NASW has now formed their own malpractice insurance group called the NASW Risk Retention Group or RRG. To obtain liability insurance, please follow the following steps:

1. Purchase student membership from NASW - https://www.socialworkers.org
2. Go to https://www.naswinsure.com
3. Select apply online and follow the directions
4. Please call 1-855-278-0038 if you have questions or encounter difficulty with the online process

The NASW offers only one option for students, the 1,000,000/5,000,000 option and it costs $15 for a one year membership. This is much cheaper than the previous rate.

REQUEST TO USE PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT
AS A FIELD PLACEMENT/ OBTAIN EMPLOYMENT AT CURRENT FIELD AGENCY

Students currently employed in a social service agency/institution or human service organization may complete their field practicum in their current job only if specific conditions are met. Approval of plans by the Director of Field Placement is required before the start of the practicum. Specific restrictions include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Students are allowed to use their place of employment as a field placement site but can do so for only one of their two placement experiences, and only if that agency meets all requirements for serving as a placement site (including, in the case of the concentration year, if that agency is suitable for the competencies specific to advanced practice);

2. The field instruction experience must be distinct from the student’s normal work activities and must be evaluated separately from those activities;

3. The student must be supervised by someone who is not his/her regular work supervisor. This instructor must meet the usual requirements of field instruction – i.e., someone who holds a MSW degree with at least 1-2 years of post-graduate experience in the field of social work;

4. The hours credited toward field placement must be distinct from the student’s employment hours; and

5. Assignment to placement remains solely the province of the program’s field director.
