Purpose
This documentation informs the audience of where to find basic information about TurnItIn.

Audience
This documentation is designed for University faculty and students that will be using TurnItIn.
TurnItIn Getting Started

Before you begin using TurnItIn, we strongly recommend that you go through a brief set of self-study training materials that we have assembled for you. Also, please familiarize yourself with the current policies regarding academic integrity that are listed in the student handbook and faculty handbook.

If you have any questions regarding TurnItIn, please contact the Center for Teaching and Learning at umtech@memphis.edu.

Getting Started

1. Read the Faculty Legal Advisory Statement provided by the Office of Legal Counsel regarding TurnItIn use by your students. You should also include this statement in your student syllabus.
   • “Your written work may be submitted to Turnitin.com, or a similar electronic detection method, for an evaluation of the originality of your ideas and proper use and attribution of sources. As part of this process, you may be required to submit electronic as well as hard copies of your written work, or be given other instructions to follow. By taking this course, you agree that all assignments may undergo this review process and that the assignment may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com’s restricted access database solely for detecting plagiarism in such documents. Any assignment not submitted according to the procedures given by the instructor may be penalized or may not be accepted at all.” (Office of Legal Counsel, October 17, 2005)

2. View the Instructor Creating An Account Video.

3. View the Originality Check Video.

4. Review the first two sections of the TurnItIn Instructors Manual.

   Chapter 1: Getting Started
   Chapter 2: Originality Checking
   Chapter 10: Quick Submit
