Fall 2018 Honors Enrollment

- Total Headcount is 1,964 (vs. 1,826 in fall, 2017)
- Admitted a record number of first-time freshmen (634), as compared to 508 freshmen in fall, 2017. This is a 15% increase.

Undergraduate Research

- Honors College will fund a “Research Fellows” program for work-study eligible students to work with faculty on research projects in AY 2018-19.
- Honors College funded 10 honors students to work on faculty-mentored projects during summer, 2018.
- Honors College funded 16 students to present their research at NCUR 2018.
- Honors College published the 5th edition of QuaesitUM, the undergraduate research journal.

National Fellowship Awards

- Honors College student Danielle Porter received a Fulbright English Teaching Assistantship to teach English in Spain.
- Honors College student Kevyanna Rawls was named a finalist for the Truman Scholarship.