Accessing GED®/GRE® for VR clients with physical and/or visual disabilities

The privilege of an education is often taken for granted. There are circumstances that inhibit students to complete the requirements for a high school diploma. Yet for individuals with disabilities, attaining a diploma is even more difficult. According to the statistics above 20 percent of our population will never receive a diploma or diploma equivalent. Mid-South Access Center for Technology (ACT) provides VR clients an evaluation, a Request for Accommodations to Testing Services, Assistive technology training, and assistive technology for the actual test.
