Roll in the Spring by Rolling with the Punches

Our February meeting will be held on Friday, February 22, 2013 • 11:30 am – 1:00 pm
Patterson Hall • Room 129

GUEST SPEAKERS

We will have two guest speakers:

Officer Loretta Rubin, Neighborhood Watch Coordinator with Memphis Police Department at Tillman Station, will come and discuss personal safety and awareness as it relates to individuals with disabilities.

Also on hand will be Ms. Melissa Galloway of the University Neighborhoods Development Corporation, or UNDC, who will present a Power Point presentation regarding travel in and around the University District in particular, and plans for upgrading the University of Memphis campus for the safety of individuals who use wheelchairs. If you have any problems or suggestions, please bring them to our attention.

Won't you join us?

Roll with the Punches is a Networking Group for People Who Use Wheelchairs

Roll with the Punches is a networking and informational support group for people who use wheelchairs and a group for users to get acquainted with each other. They can also learn about technology and resources that may be new and helpful to them. We will have group discussions where success stories are shared, and in turn inspiring. We will also have discussions regarding the challenges they have faced.

Roll with the Punches is designed to assist individuals who use wheelchairs, as well as their assistants, families, and friends, to inform them of the latest technology and resources that are available to them. It is also able to help members meet new people and to have FUN!
