Safety is our priority.

At the University of Memphis, we're committed to fostering a safe and welcoming campus environment. We invest in advanced safety measures, including innovative technology through our University Crime Information Center, a visible and approachable campus safety presence, and easily accessible emergency phones. A courtesy escort service is also available seven days a week, helping ensure peace of mind at any hour.

MEMPHIS HOME

COLLEGE ISN'T JUST ABOUT WHAT HAPPENS ON CAMPUS — IT'S ABOUT THE EXPERIENCES
YOU GAIN BY BEING PART OF A VIBRANT, DYNAMIC CITY.

Memphis is a major metropolitan area with access to a thriving arts, music, food and entertainment scene with over 160 parks and a stunning river front.

Memphis provides the soundtrack for the world as the home of the blues and the birthplace of rock-n-roll, and pioneers in soul, gospel, rap and hip hop.

Major Fortune 500 companies, mission driven non-profits and creative start-ups, including FedEx, AutoZone and St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital call the city of Memphis home.

On average, we enjoy 234 days a year of sunshine for year-round fun – kayaking, biking, festivals, sports and recreation.

UofM students performed over 19,841 hours of community service in the city and around the globe.

The Largest Honors College in Tennessee

Top academic achievers find their home at the Helen Hardin Honors College, where exceptional professors, small classes and abundant research opportunities across numerous disciplines foster success.

Our students are changemakers and award winners. They receive top campus honors and also earn prestigious national scholarships that support undergraduate study, such as the Truman, Goldwater, and Gilman scholarships. Many also secure fellowships that fund graduate education, including the National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship and the Phi Kappa Phi Graduate Fellowship.

Top Benefits of Being an Honors College Member:

- Honors Living-Learning Community – Live alongside fellow Honors College students on exclusive residence hall floors (optional)
- Study Abroad Early – Travel the world starting your freshman year (as early as spring semester!)
- Priority Class Registration – Get first dibs on the classes you want, when you want them
- Undergraduate Research Access – Dive into research across 200+ fields of study
- Smaller Classes – Learn in intimate settings led by our most engaging faculty
- Honors Lounge & Lab Access – Chill or study in our exclusive student lounge and computer lab
