

Questions: jnmiller@memphis.edu

Released: October 27, 2016

Women's History Month Poster Design Contest Prospectus

Theme:

"Who Runs the World: Women's History Month 2017"

Interpretation of the above theme is open ended and based upon the ideas of the designer(s).

Reward:

The winning artwork will be the official image for the March 2017 celebration of Women's History Month. The posters will be prominently displayed throughout the University and the community and the artist's name will accompany her/his image on the poster. The winning entry will be selected by a panel of faculty, staff and student members of the Women's History Month Executive Committee. The winning artist will receive a matted and framed copy of the poster and recognition at the closing event of Women's History Month as well as on their social media platforms.

Eligibility:

All undergraduate and graduate students enrolled at the University of Memphis, all campuses including Lambuth Campus during the 2016/2017 academic year, including those who graduate in December 2016. English Department, Anthropology, Art, Communication, and all University of Memphis departments welcome.

Calendar:

January 25, 2017 (official) • Entries must be received by 11:59pm. January 25th, 2017

• Selection of winning design.

February • Poster with winning design published.

March 31 • Closing event for Women's History Month, winning designer or design team introduced and honored by women's history month representatives.

- name of artist
- contact information: email, telephone, local address
- academic department and year
- title of work
- medium
- include a one to two paragraph statement about design

Released: Nov 18, 2016

Digital Entries:

File needs to be at least
24x30 inches at 300 DPI
Needs to be unflattened / editable TIFF format (if uncompressed format is not available, then a Hi-Resolution JPEG at minimum of 4000 pixels longest dimension and 300dpi may substitute) or preferably Photoshop EPS format. Vector text.

Physical Entries:

2-dimensional artwork between
8x10 inches and 24x30 inches in size.

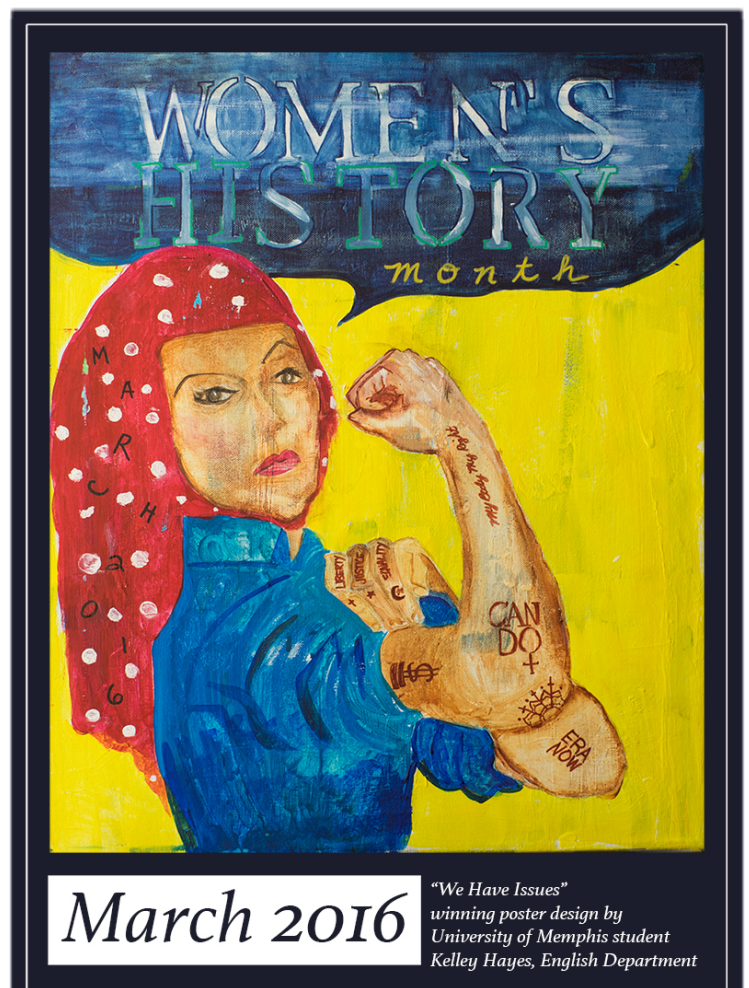

Requirements:

Designs may be submitted in a physical form or in a digital form. The poster with the winning design will be printed from a digital file. Physical designs must be delivered to the Art Museum by 11:59pm on January 25th, 2017. Digital files may be submitted on mac readable disk or email to jnmiller@memphis.edu through https:// www.wetransfer.com (no zip files please) up to 2GB per transmission Please put “poster contest” on subject / info area. This call is open to a single designer or design team.

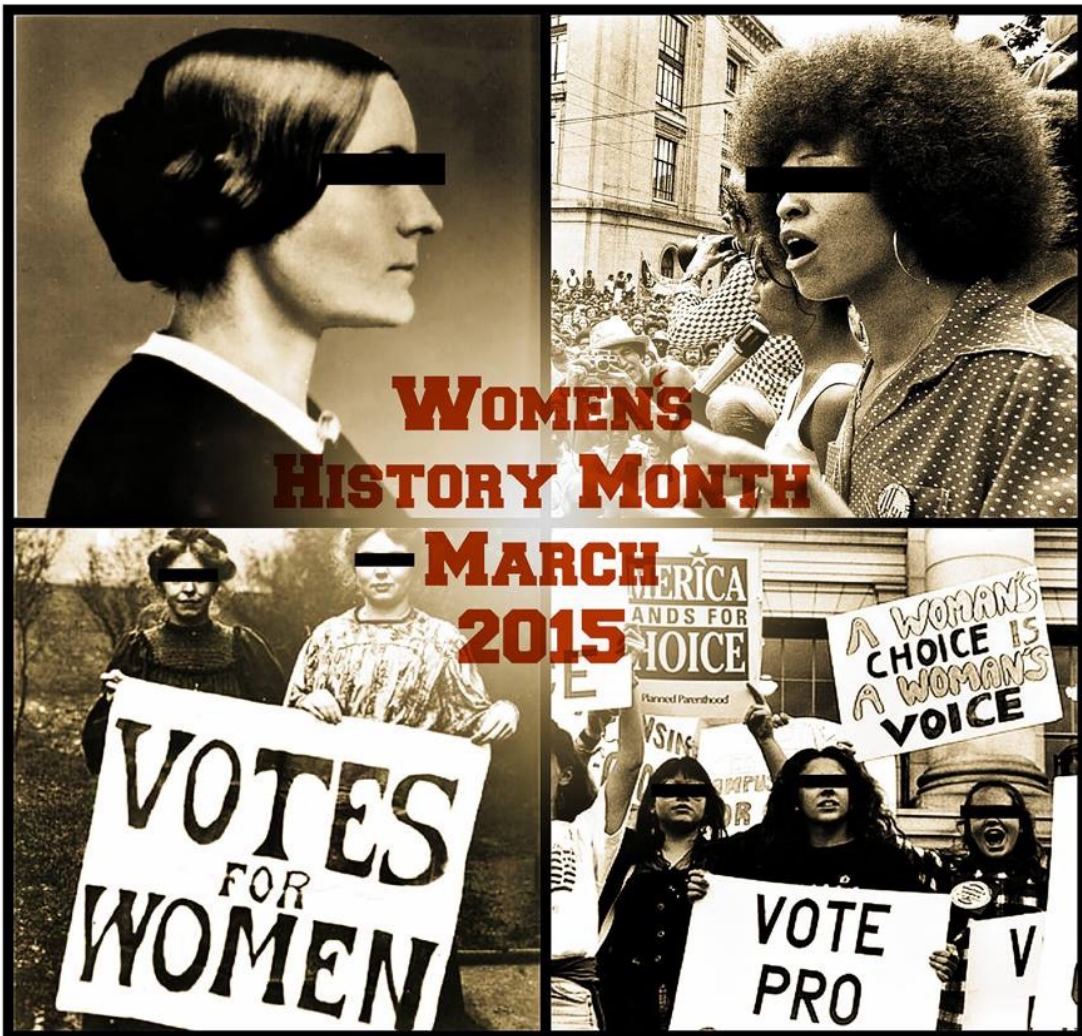

Examples of last two year's poster contest winners!

Learn more online at: <http://www.memphis.edu/whm/> facebook.com/uofmwhm and twitter.com/uofmwhm

WEAVING THE STORIES OF

WOMEN'S LIVES

winning poster design by Amira B. Randolph, University of Memphis Student

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS™

The University of Memphis is an AA/EEO employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in its programs and activities.