

Paid Internships Available for Memphis Students

- $15 per hour
- 165 hours of immersive, relevant, hands-on work
- 20 hours of exclusive educational programming
- Remote and on-site internships available

Experience Museum Professions; Earn a Competitive Wage

- Gain career experience at a museum or other cultural organization in Memphis.
- Enhance your professional skills and learn new ones.
- Complete meaningful work as a member of a team.
- Internships are available in departments such as: curatorial, collections, marketing, education, and archives.

Program Partners Include:

- Memphis Books Museum of Art
- Metal Museum
- Art Museum of the University of Memphis...and more!

Am I Eligible?

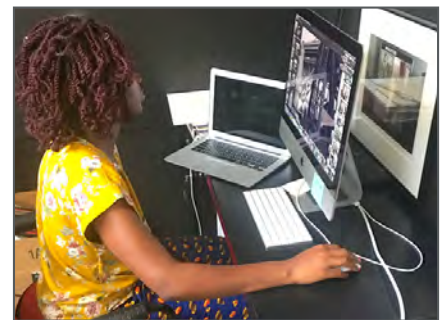

Eligible students must be full-time juniors or seniors with high financial need. Students must be residents of, or attend college in Memphis. (See artsintern.org for details.)

Questions about this unique internship opportunity?

Contact: artsintern@studioinstitute.org.

APPLY NOW
at ArtsIntern.org!

Internships run from December 2020–April 2021.
Applications are reviewed as they're received.

“

I got to observe professional people and behavior and build a network of professional contacts—potentially developing mentoring relationships.

Aysia, Collections Intern, Memphis Brooks Museum of Art