

HOOKS INSTITUTE POLICY PAPERS

Reimagining The Criminal Legal System to Create a More Equitable Society

IN THIS ISSUE

Introduction of Guest Editor

Daphene R. McFerren, JD
Elena Delavega, PhD, MSW
Daniel Kiel, JD

Foreword

Lindsey Raisa Feldman, PhD

Ending Mass Incarceration by Understanding Critical Race Theory

Miriam Clark, PhD

Identifying and Serving Those with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities: An Equitable Approach for Jails and Prisons

Brenna Breshears, PhD, LPC, CRC

No Escape: Jail and the Myth of Innocence

Josh Spickler, JD

Profiting from Punishment Drift: The Case for Abolishing For-Profit Prison Communication

Lindsey Raisa Feldman, PhD

Mental Health Services as a Mandatory Necessity for Returning Citizens

Crystal DeBerry, DSW, LCSW

FEBRUARY 2024
NINTH EDITION

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS

The Benjamin L. Hooks
Institute for Social Change

memphis.edu/benhooks