

MARVIN ELLISON

Chairman & CEO | Lowe's
UofM Alumnus, BBA | Marketing '89

WHAT IT TAKES

SPEAKER SERIES

EVENT DETAILS

Do you have your sights on becoming a leading business professional? Have you ever wondered what steps you need to take to achieve this goal? If so, join us for an exclusive opportunity to hear from Marvin Ellison, chairman & CEO of Lowe's and UofM alumnus.

Ellison, the first and only African American to serve as chairman and CEO of two Fortune 500 companies (Lowe's and JCPenney), will provide keen insights about his own career journey and share advice on how you can best position yourself for success.

Do not miss this exciting opportunity to network with one of Fortune's "Most Inspirational CEOs" and "World's Greatest Leaders."

The event will be moderated by FCBE Dean Bobby Garrett.

Lunch will be served. Registration is required.
Business professional attire is encouraged.

TUESDAY

NOV. 5

12:45 – 2:30 PM

SCAN TO REGISTER

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS®

Fogelman College of Business & Economics