

ACCOUNTING CAREERS OF TOMORROW

Accounting Careers of Tomorrow (ACT) is a partnership between the Avron B. Fogelman Center for Professional Career Development (CPCD) and CPA firm, Reynolds Bone & Griesbeck (RBG).

ACT is open to current MGMT 3033 and ACCT 3100 students. All other accounting majors will be scheduled as space allows.

INTERVIEWING SKILLS FOR THE ACCOUNTING PROFESSION

Students will take a career assessment to help determine future options and participate in mock interviews with accounting professionals to prepare for upcoming internships and job opportunities.

CAREER OPTIONS IN ACCOUNTING

A panel of industry professionals will discuss various accounting career paths that can be pursued. Students will meet and network with RBG executives and other participating employers.

MEET EMPLOYERS, SEEK FULL-TIME OPPORTUNITIES & EXPLORE INTERNSHIPS

Students will meet directly with potential employers, so be sure you have your resume approved and ready to submit electronically for full-time and internship opportunities.

*Location will be provided upon registering.
Space is limited to 30 students for this event.*
