

Women FOGELMAN IN LEADERSHIP

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 5 | 11 AM–5 PM

Maxine A. Smith University Center Ballroom

DR. TRISH HOLLIDAY

SHRM-SCP, SPHR, IPMA-CE, CPC

Chief People Officer | Nashville Electric Services

PROFESSIONAL TRACK LEADERSHIP SUMMIT Becoming A Woman Leader of Excellence In Today's Workplace

Women represent over 50% of today's workplace—yet many of these professionals have not gained the leadership essentials needed to lead with excellence. Join the Fogelman Women in Leadership (FWL) Leadership Summit and learn from seasoned women leaders who have learned how to excel in their leadership roles.

Our keynote speaker, Dr. Trish Holliday, is a highly acclaimed leader of innovation, integrity and inspiration. Her work spans numerous industries including TN State Government, Nashville Electric Services and her own Strategic Leadership Consulting firm, Holliday-Kenning. This leading-woman-owned firm has been identified as one of the top strategy firms in the US for leadership, employee development and culture transformation.

Her topic as keynote speaker is “My Leadership Journey: Lessons Learned for Success.” She is joined by selected local speakers and panelists to help you become the leader you want to be! This insightful workshop will prepare and inspire you to set new goals, elevate your confidence and confront challenges to excel in your organization.

Lunch and afternoon coffee break will be served. SHRM-SCP and CP credit provided to attendees.

*The Fogelman Women in Leadership Program Professional Track is designed to equip working women in the Mid-South with cutting edge leadership skills for upward growth and mobility. For information, contact program director Dr. Kathy Tuberville at K.Tuberville@memphis.edu.

