SECOND BACHELOR'S DEGREE

2016 and future catalogs:

To earn the second bachelor’s degree, the student must:

1. Complete any additional college requirements as determined by the office of the dean of the college granting the second baccalaureate degree.

   College of Arts and Sciences additional requirements:

   For the B.A. degree:
   - Foreign Language requirement (6-12 hours)
   - Fine Arts (3 hours) (if not completed in Gen Ed)

   For the B.S. degree:
   - No additional requirements

2. Complete all requirements for the major as determined by the department in which the second baccalaureate degree is sought.

3. Complete a minimum of 30 semester hours in residence.

4. Earn a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and a minimum GPA of 2.0 in all coursework taken at the University of Memphis.
2013 -2015 catalogs

All students who hold a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher education, including the University of Memphis, may earn another bachelor’s degree with a different title.

To earn the second bachelor’s degree, the student must:

1. Complete any additional college requirements as determined by the office of the dean of the college granting the second baccalaureate degree.

   College of Arts and Sciences additional requirements:

   For the B.A. degree:
   - Foreign Language requirement (6-12 hours)
   - Fine Arts (3 hours) (if not completed in Gen Ed)
   - Upper Division Humanities (3 hours) – for majors in Anthropology, Communication, Criminology Criminal Justice, Earth Sciences, Economics, Hospitality and Resort Management, Journalism, Political Science, Psychology, Social Work, Sociology.
   - Upper Division Social Science (3 hours) – for majors in Art History, English, Foreign Languages, History, Philosophy.
   - Math/Natural Science (3-4 hours)

   For the B.S. degree:
   - Upper Division Humanities (3 hours)
   - Upper Division Social Science (3 hours)

2. Complete all requirements for the major as determined by the department in which the second baccalaureate degree is sought.

3. Complete a minimum of 30 semester hours in residence.

4. Earn a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and a minimum GPA of 2.0 in all coursework taken at the University of Memphis.
2012 and prior catalogs

All students who hold a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher education, including the University of Memphis, may earn another bachelor’s degree with a different title.

To earn the second bachelor’s degree, the student must:

1. Complete any additional college requirements as determined by the office of the dean of the college granting the second baccalaureate degree.

   College of Arts and Sciences additional requirements:

   For the B.A. degree:
   - Foreign Language requirement (6-12 hours)
   - Fine Arts (3 hours)
   - Upper Division Humanities (3 hours)
   - Social Science (3 hours)
   - Math/Natural Science (3-4 hours)

   For the B.S. degree:
   - Upper Division Humanities (3 hours)
   - Social Science (3 hours)
   - Math/Natural Science (3-4 hours)

2. Complete all requirements for the major as determined by the department in which the second baccalaureate degree is sought.

3. Complete a minimum of 30 semester hours in residence.

4. Earn a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 and a minimum GPA of 2.0 in all coursework taken at the University of Memphis.