Introduction to Criminal and Forensic Photography
Instructor: Mr. L.T. "Woody" Woodard
3 i ad] eZab eba` ea dW lk

The Center for Community Criminology Research (CCCR) The University of Memphis Lambuth and Jackson Police Department.

February 17,2016
8am-5pm
Wilder Student Union Building Room 217
Jackson, TN

This class will focus on:
Digital Photography for Law Enforcement, Secure Digital Forensic Imaging Methods,
Photo Shooting Principle of Evidence, Forensic Photography Concepts, Operating the Digital Single Lenses Reflex Camera and Light Source and Light Intensity Photo Testing

Students will need to bring:

SLR/ single lenses reflex with interchangeable lenses. Examples include: Canon T5 series camera w/lenses or Nikon D3300 series camera w/lenses.

This course has been submitted for POST credit approval.

The cost for this one-day workshop is $75.00, which will include a light pizza lunch.
Register and pay online at: www.memphis.edu/cccr.
Registration deadline: January 11, 2016. Non-refundable after February 16, 2016.
For more information please email cccr@mmemphis.edu or call Dr. Melissa Tetzlaff-Bemiller 901-678-1933.

Email: CCCR@memphis.edu

Website: www.memphis.edu/CCCR

U of M
THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS®
Lambuth

Driven by doing.