

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY CRIMINOLOGY
AND RESEARCH

Mini Conference on Juvenile Violence Prevention

3i ad eZabba` adWtk

The Center for Community Criminology Research (CCCR) The University of Memphis Lambuth and Jackson Police Department.

April 7-8, 2016

8am-5pm

*Wilder Student Union Building
Jackson, TN*

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, reports that youth violence prevention is a top priority for government officials and policymakers, practitioners, researchers, and community members across the nation. In spite of consistent decreases in juvenile violent crime arrests nationwide since 1994, many localities continue to seek information and strategies to better prevent and respond to youth violence. We will focus on gangs, gun violence, teen dating violence, violence in schools, and violence retaliation.

If you are interested in preparing a poster presentation and presenting at the conference, please select a topic from the following list and send a short abstract to Dr. Melissa Tetzlaff-Bemiller.

Abstract Submission Deadline: March 23, 2016

Attraction of gangs

Prevention Practices: schools, family, community

Females and gangs

Gang communication

Gang identification

Types of gangs

Crime mapping/plotting of gang activity

The cost for this one-day workshop is $75.00, $30 for student attendees, and $25 for student presenters. Register and pay online at: www.memphis.edu/cccr.

Registration deadline: April 3, 2016. Non-refundable after April 1, 2016.

For more information please email cccr@mmemphis.edu or call

Dr. Melissa Tetzlaff-Bemiller 901-678-1933.

Email: CCCR@memphis.edu

Website: www.memphis.edu/CCCR

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS
Lambuth

Driven by doing.