Zones 12 & 13 - The Box Gallery's and the Martha and Robert Fogelman Galleries of Contemporary Art

Gallery A: Pam McDonnell, MFA Show, The Body is a Reliquary

The Body is a Reliquary is rooted in a deep curiosity about the human psyche with its mysterious desire to communicate through symbol and story.

These tools help us to make meaning out of our lives as well as rearrange, keep or let go of the various elements that make up our orienting systems.

All of the experiences and memories we retain are hidden in our body. This work is seeks to explore embodiment in a new and joyful way.

Gallery B: Milestones: Artists Educating

Art Educators of the top ten high schools that represent a large portion of our student body.
