

The University of Memphis Cyber Tigers participated in the 2025 Raymond James CTF Competition in Tampa-St. Petersburg on Saturday October 18, 2025. The students competed in a friendly real-world cybersecurity challenge that promoted learning, collaboration, and fun.

Unfortunately, the team did not place among the top three winners this year. The participating Cyber Tiger team members are depicted in the photograph above (left-to-right): Saukin Thika You, Truc Thi Nguyen, Nicholas Redmond (team captain), Adrien Kim Jones, and Hassan Mansour Ali. Tony Pinson served as the team staff advisor for the event. Dr. Dipankar Dasgupta is the team faculty advisor.
