

Dear Members of the University of Memphis Community,

We are excited to continue the transition of the dining program. As our renovations to various locations continue throughout the summer, we want to ensure that you are aware of what is open and always have access to the latest dining information. Please reference our website at memphis.edu/dining for information on locations, hours, catering and how to contact us. The following locations will be open with summer hours.

Newly Enhanced Tiger Den Eatery!

Open intermittently for camps and conferences – visit our website for summer hours of service.

Panda Express:

Monday-Friday | 10:30 AM-1:30 PM

Chick-fil-A:

Monday-Thursday | 10:30 AM-4:30 PM

Friday | 10:30 AM-3 PM

Market at University Center:

Open Monday-Thursday | 8 AM-4:30 PM

Friday | 8 AM-3 PM

Additionally, we would like to share a sneak peek of some of the new dining features coming your way this fall:

Sally the Salad Robot in the Engineering Building

We are excited for you to meet Sally. Sally, the salad-making robot, uses 21 ingredients – including romaine, kale, seared chicken breast, Parmesan, California walnuts, cherry tomatoes and Kalamata olives – to craft more than a thousand types of salad in about 60 seconds while the customer watches.

Bowl Life comes to the FedEx Institute of Technology

Bowl Life is not your average bowl concept. Our bold bowls are hot and hearty meals that offer you dynamic options for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Starting with the highest quality ingredients and locally grown produce, you can taste big, bold layers of flavors in every dish.

Visit our website and follow us @DineatUofM on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter for even more information on new brands and all things dining. We look forward to serving you.
