

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Vice Provost and Dean of the Graduate School, Dr. Deborah Perron Tollefsen

The Graduate School of the University of Memphis is the center of advanced study and research within the University. The basic objectives of The Graduate School are: (a) to preserve and disseminate knowledge now available in the humanities, the sciences, and the various professional areas represented by the departmental graduate faculties; (b) to extend knowledge through basic research; and (c) to prepare men and women to assume a more responsible and useful role in society.

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Interim Dean, Gary Emmert, PhD

The aims and purposes of The College of Arts and Sciences are (1) to provide students with a store of factual knowledge; (2) to introduce them to varying sets of principles; (3) to stimulate them to think about and to evaluate these facts and principles; and (4) to encourage them to order their own affairs and those of society with the talent, insight and discrimination which they develop. We have been privileged to pursue these aims with the following students who are candidates for the seven degrees which we offer:

MASTER OF ARTS

COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION AND FINE ARTS

Dean, Dr. Debra Burns

The College of Communication and Fine Arts is ultimately centered on visual and audible symbols whose rational and emotional values it is the mission of the College to create and explore. In the belief that perception is largely shaped by experience, the College of Communication and Fine Arts offers a range of symbolically rendered experiences, both individual and collective, in the hope of broadening and sensitizing the perceptions of its students. Through its various professional courses of study, it prepares students to work toward careers in architecture and design, the fine or applied arts, communication & film, or the performing arts, whether as practitioners, teachers, artists, or consultants. The College offers seven degrees by which to accomplish its purposes:

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Dean, Dr. Michael T. Miller

The most historic academic programs at the University of Memphis are housed in the nationally accredited College of Education. The College holds the distinction of being one of the few in the nation to continuously meet the rigorous standards of the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation as well as the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Programs and the American Psychological Association. The majority of programs include field-based training with area schools and community based organizations. The College is also home to the nationally recognized Center for Research in Educational Policy and the Center for Rehabilitation and Employment Research. Offering a full range of undergraduate and graduate degree programs, delivered both on-campus and on-line, the College is consistently one of the largest producers of school teachers in the state.

COLLEGE OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SCIENCES

Dean, Richard Bloomer, PhD

The College of Health and Human Sciences (CHHS) provides students with a top-tier education focused on the fundamental principles of health, exercise, nutrition, sport and entertainment, physical activity, and hospitality while equipping students with the cutting-edge knowledge and skills needed to fulfill leadership roles in their chosen area of specialty. This often includes pursuing graduate study in the allied health sciences (e.g., physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, nutrition), physical education, sport commerce, and hospitality, in addition to PhD study in related areas. The Dietetics and Integrated Nutrition programs are accredited by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND), while the Doctor of Physical Therapy program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education (CAPTE). Faculty members within CHHS are leaders in their respective disciplines and oversee internationally recognized research programs. Nine undergraduate, eight Master of Science, and two Doctor of Philosophy programs of study are offered within CHHS, in addition to the Doctor of Physical Therapy. Minors in Nutrition, Health and Wellness; Personal Training; Strength and Conditioning; Medical Assisting; Hospitality and Resort Management; Special Events and Catering Management; Tourism Management; and Esports are also offered.

MASTER OF SCIENCE

The candidates for this degree have majored in the areas of Integrated Nutrition; Environmental Nutrition; Nutrition Science; Exercise Nutrition; Exercise, Sport, and Movement Sciences; Lifestyle Medicine; Physical Education Teacher Education; Sport Commerce

COLLEGE OF PROFESSIONAL & LIBERAL STUDIES

Dean, Joanne Gikas, EdD

The College of Professional & Liberal Studies, formerly University College, provides interdisciplinary educational opportunities in a flexible, relevant format for a diverse community of traditional and non-traditional adult learners. Established in 1975, the college is an innovator of new programs, a catalyst for interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary efforts throughout the campus, and a facilitator for the community to interact with the University. Students may also take advantage of the unique opportunity to petition for college credit for the knowledge, training, and skills acquired through professional experiences. The college offers individualized programs of study, allowing students to combine several areas of emphases in order to design their own degree. Additionally, we offer interdisciplinary degrees not traditionally offered by other colleges on campus. These include a Bachelor of Professional Studies and a Bachelor of Liberal Studies in over 20 concentrations including Child Development & Family Studies, Merchandising, Legal Studies, and also a Bachelor of Science in Commercial Aviation. Our Graduate Program offers a completely online Master of Professional Studies program with concentrations in Strategic Leadership, Human Resources Leadership, and Training and Development. Student may also design their own graduate individualized program of study through our Master of Arts in Liberal Studies degree as well as a Doctor of Liberal Studies degree.

MASTER OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

The Master of Professional Studies is an interdisciplinary graduate degree in the social sciences and professions with concentrations in Strategic Leadership, Human Resources Leadership, and Training and Development. The degree includes coursework in leadership, communication, strategic planning and assessment, organizational structure, e-learning technologies, management and design of training materials and research/data analysis.

FOGELMAN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS & ECONOMICS

Dean, Bobby Garrett, PhD

The Fogelman College of Business & Economics (FCBE), an AACSB accredited institution, comprises six departments (School of Accountancy; Economics; Finance, Insurance and Real Estate; Management Information Systems; Management; and Marketing and Supply Chain Management) and academic programs at all levels – undergraduate, masters and doctoral. Fogelman College's undergraduate, masters and doctoral enrollments are 2,620, 742 and 78, respectively, and it has 109 full-time and part-time faculty members. Approximately 90% of full-time faculty members hold doctoral degrees. The Fogelman College differentiates itself by providing a unique Complete Professional Program that holistically prepares students with the tools to achieve both personal and professional excellence. Through the Avron B. Fogelman Professional Development Center, FCBE provides training on ethics, healthy living habits, business etiquette, resume building, professionalism, philanthropic activities and more. In addition to the professional development differentiator, Fogelman College is also proud to distinguish itself based on the customized development of MBAs. Fogelman College offers a comprehensive portfolio of graduate programs including five different tracks to earn a MBA. These programs include the Customer-Driven MBA, International MBA, Executive MBA, Online MBA and Professional MBA. Furthermore, Fogelman College works very closely with Memphis area companies, many of them Fortune 500, to offer students invaluable hands-on learning experiences from professionals in these industries.

SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION SCIENCES & DISORDERS

Dean, Linda Jarmulowicz, PhD

The School of Communication Sciences and Disorders promotes effective communication and function of related systems for all individuals through excellence in education, research, and practice. The school houses two nationally ranked and accredited professional graduate programs, a research-focused PhD, and an undergraduate program. The master's degree in speech-language pathology (M.A.) and the clinical doctorate in audiology (Au. D.) emphasize theoretical and applied aspects of communication disorders and prepare graduates for clinical careers within the fields and for further graduate study. At the research level, the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) program emphasizes the theoretical and applied aspects of communication disorders that prepare graduates for academic research and teaching positions within the field and for postdoctoral graduate study. The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in American Sign Language and Deaf Studies prepares students to be advocates of the language, the culture, and people who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing. We are proud of the following graduates:

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Dean, Dr. Ashish Joshi

The School of Public Health, nationally accredited by the Council on Education for Public Health, provides both graduate and undergraduate education, practicum experience, and research training to develop capabilities and address the growing need for a proficient public health workforce. The School offers a Bachelor of Science in Public Health (BSPH); three master's degrees (Master of Science in Biostatistics; Master of Public Health; and Master of Health Administration); and three doctoral degrees (Biostatistics, Epidemiology, and Social & Behavioral Sciences). The Master of Public Health provides concentrations in five areas: Biostatistics, Epidemiology, Urban Health, Social & Behavioral Sciences, and Generalist. The nationally-ranked Master of Health Administration and online Executive MHA are accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education (CAHME) and are the only CAHME-accredited programs in Tennessee. Our mission involves the translation of knowledge and research into community practice to tackle pressing societal problems of social and environmental justice, health disparities, unhealthy lifestyles, and accessible systems that support the health of individuals, families, and communities. We emphasize both discovery and application with the goal of moving "knowledge into action" locally, nationally, and globally. We are proud of the following graduates:

MASTER OF HEALTH ADMINISTRATION

The candidates for this degree have majored in Public Health with emphasis in the areas of Biostatistics, Epidemiology, Environmental Health, Health Systems Management or Social and Behavioral Sciences.
