2019 – 2020 MEN'S BASKETBALL INFORMATION

The University of Memphis Tigers Men's Basketball season begins Thursday, October 24, 2019 at 7:00 PM vs Christian Brothers (exhibition) at the FedExForum. Here is important information about student tickets for this year's home men's basketball games.

TICKETS:

- Full-time students (six hours or more for this purpose) with a valid University of Memphis ID will be admitted free of charge at each game. You must have your ID with you, or you will not be admitted
- Part-time students (five hours or less for this purpose) may purchase a $7 ticket for themselves at the Athletic Ticket Office located in the Penny Hardaway Hall of Fame at the Athletic Office Building (570 Normal Street) during regular office hours, Monday-Friday 8:00-4:30, while supplies last. Part-time student tickets will be available for Cash Only at FedExForum.
- Students may purchase one guest ticket for each game at the Athletic Ticket Office for $10, while supplies last. Students are strongly encouraged to buy guest tickets at the Athletic Ticket Office prior to the game. They will be available two weeks prior to each game. A very limited guest tickets will be available for Cash Only at the FedExForum ticket window.

STUDENT ENTRANCE & SEATING:

- Student entrance with ID is located on the left side of the main entrance into FedExForum from Third Street.
- Student seating is general admission in assigned sections 101, 102, 117, and 118 in the Plaza level and sections 201, 202, and 232 in the Terrace level.
- After IDs are scanned (and guest tickets taken) at FedExForum, each student (and guest) will be given a ticket for the game, which will then be scanned by FedExForum personnel.
- Students (and guests) wishing to sit together must enter together. As a general rule, seats are first-come, first-served, starting with the lower level of the student sections and moving to the upper level of the student sections.
- There are a limited number of seats in the student section at FedExForum. If all seats in the student section are filled, no more students (or guests) can be admitted, although every effort will be made to find additional seating.

STUDENT IDs:

- Fall students' IDs will be valid for entry to games through December 31, 2019. For students enrolled for the Spring 2020 semester, IDs will be valid beginning January 15, 2020.
- If your ID card is damaged, you may receive a free replacement ID card at the Campus Card Office located at the University Student & Business Services Office in 115 Wilder Tower upon presentation of your damaged card.
- Please note that if your ID card is used by someone else, your ID will be confiscated and turned over to the Office of Student Conduct.

BUSES:

- Buses for students will meet at Centennial Place (Norriswood and Patterson) approximately 2-Hours prior to game time and then leave approximately 30 minutes prior to the game. Seating is limited and available on a first come first serve basis. Buses make one trip to the game. Buses will only run during select games.

STUDENT PARKING:

- Student parking spaces have been acquired for all home games. Students must show a valid University of Memphis ID for admittance to parking. Parking is limited and is available on a first come first served basis. The parking lot is located at 327 Gayoso Avenue, Memphis, TN 38103. There is a gate to this lot at 432 Beale Street between Danny Thomas Blvd and South 4th street which is closer to the FedEx Forum.

BLUE CREW:

- Blue Crew is a University of Memphis student group made up of the most passionate Tiger fans on campus. If you're loud, rowdy, and wild about your Memphis Tigers, you need to GET INVOLVED WITH THE BLUE CREW!
