Things to Consider

Initial Allegation

- Was the assignment flagged on Turn It In?
- Is the writing within the student's normal scope of ability?
- Are sources or theories not applicable or relevant to the course used for the assignments foundation?

Faculty/Student Meeting

- How did the student write the paper? What was their process?
- Are they able to recall enough information about the topic or assignment without being prompted? Are they able to do so without the assignment in hand?
- Has the student experienced a traumatic event recently?

Academic Misconduct Reporting Form

Office of Student Accountability

Academic Misconduct Process

Initial Steps

A faculty member who believes there may have been a violation of the Academic Misconduct rule meets with the student to explain the information leading them to believe that a violation has occurred, allows the student to respond, and if the faculty member believes that a violation more than likely occurred, proposes the resolution options.

Resolution Options

Resolution by Agreement	Resolution by Investigation & Hearing
Incident is resolved between faculty & student.	Incident referred to OSA and a hearing takes place.
Appropriate in the following situations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The student acknowledges the violation; and The student accepts the proposed outcomes & sanctions. 	Appropriate in the following situations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The severity of the alleged violation warrants a response greater than a grade sanction; and/or The student denies the allegation(s); and/or The student does not agree to the proposed outcomes & sanctions.
The faculty member and student sign the Academic Misconduct Violation Report & Resolution Form.
The Form and supporting materials are forwarded to the Office of Student Accountability. The case is resolved after OSA reviews and accepts the resolution agreement.	The faculty member sends the Office of Student Accountability the Form and supporting materials. The case is then transferred to a Conduct Educator for further review and investigation. If sufficient information exists to show a violation the student will be charged and heard through the disciplinary process as prescribed in the Student Code.

Freedom of choice

Faculty and Students are not expected to make an immediate decision regarding how to resolve the case. Either party may contact the Office of Student Accountability regarding their options and process for resolving referrals.

Cases Involving Graduate or Professional Students

Faculty alleging a graduate or professional student of violation of one or more of the Academic Misconduct rules should consult with the Office of Student Accountability, as graduate students are normally reviewed for retention and/or removal, even for a first-time academic misconduct violation. Additionally, professional standards and retention reviews may wish to utilize the findings from the Student Code process to serve as the basis for program retention review.

Assigning a grade of "I" (incomplete) while a case is pending

No grade sanction should be assigned by the faculty member until the referral is fully resolved, including the process of considering the student's appeal, if any. If the referral is not resolved prior to the end of the semester, a grade of "I" should be assigned. The student is to remain enrolled in the course and all other assignments are to be graded normally. Written notification of the final outcome for the case will be sent to the student and the faculty member regarding the appropriate grade calculation or academic sanction at the conclusion of a disciplinary process.

What Do We Need From You?

- Course Syllabus
- Narrative of the Incident
- Copy of the Assignment/Instructions
- TurnItIn Report (if applicable)
- Any subsequent AI reports, i.e. Quillbot, GPTZero (if applicable)

AI and OSA

Guiding Standard for Academic Integrity Outcomes

If a faculty member's syllabi states that use of artificial intelligence is prohibited, then that becomes the leading rationale for students found responsible of an applicable violation.

General Sanction Submissions

- 20% is the maximum allowed use for AI in our office.
- All sanctions above 20% are required to be resubmitted or additional sanctions can apply.
