Outstanding Faculty Teaching Award Criteria

DESCRIPTION

The COE Outstanding Teaching Award recognizes exemplary teaching performance in the classroom. Outstanding teaching is conveyed through innovative pedagogy, incorporating new instructional content, and/or teaching practice. One COE Outstanding Teaching Award will be awarded annually.

ELIGIBILITY

All full-time UoM COE faculty. An individual can only receive the award once in a three-year cycle.

NOMINATION PROCEDURE

Nominations may come from a student, full-time faculty member or Department Chair during the previous calendar year. Self-nominations will NOT be accepted for this award.

The nominator should:

1. Ensure nominee's eligibility.
2. The nomination should include a 1-page (maximum) summary highlighting the nominee's innovative pedagogy, incorporation of new instructional content, and/or teaching practice. Students currently enrolled in one of the nominee's courses are not eligible to submit a letter of nomination.
3. Provide at least one, but no more than two letters of support. Current students can write letters of support but cannot write a nomination letter.
