

HELPFUL OFFICES & CONTACT NUMBERS

Educational Initiatives

901.678.2644 | universitieschools@memphis.edu
UC 243

University & Student Business Services

901.678.2712 | usbs@memphis.edu
115 Wilder Tower

Career Services

901.678.2239 | careerservices@memphis.edu
400 Wilder Tower

Dean of Students

901.678.2187 | deanofstudents@memphis.edu
359 University Center

Financial Aid

901.678.4825 | financialaid@memphis.edu
103 Wilder Tower

Housing & Residence Life

901.678.2295 | housing@memphis.edu
175 Centennial Place

Parking & Transportation Services

901.678.2212 | parking@memphis.edu
120 Zach Curlin Parking Garage

Police Services

901.678.5498 | police@memphis.edu
100 Zach Curlin Parking Garage

Student Health Center

901.678.2287 | studenthealth@memphis.edu
200 Hudson Health Center

University Counseling Center

901.678.2068 | counseling@memphis.edu
214 Wilder Tower

Veterans and Military Student Services

901.678.4269 | veterans@memphis.edu
222 University Center

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT

The Dean of Students Office runs the Student Outreach & Support (SOS) service that helps to navigate any issues that UofM students face during their enrollment. SOS uses an interdisciplinary approach, which supports students by prioritizing academic and personal success to help students succeed.

To learn more, visit memphis.edu/deanofstudents/sos/index.php or email deanofstudents@memphis.edu or sos@memphis.edu

UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS STUDENT-PARENT RESOURCE GUIDE

UNIVERSITY
SCHOOLS
UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS

EDUCATION

The University of Memphis is home to on-campus full day schools for students in preschool – 8th grade for current student-parents.

The Early Learning & Research Center is a tuition-based preschool for children aged 2-5. UofM students receive admission priority and scholarships. Please visit memphis.edu/lipman to learn more or email the Executive Director, Brooke Willis, bwillis@memphis.edu

Campus School and University Middle are public school options for students in grades kindergarten – 8th grade. Current UofM student-parents receive first enrollment priority and applications are available online on each school's website.

Please visit:
memphis.edu/campuschool to learn more or email the executive director, Dr. Rebecca Scott, rhscott@memphis.edu

Please visit:
memphis.edu/middleschool to learn more or email the executive director, James Smith, jsmith19@memphis.edu

Please visit:
memphis.edu/lipman to learn more or email the executive director, Brooke Willis, bwillis3@memphis.edu

PARENTING SUPPORT & EDUCATION PARENTING SUPPORT & EDUCATION

The Coordinated Effort to Enhance Development (CEED) Department, lead by Dr. Loretta Rudd, offers evidence-based parenting programs including: community based Nurturing Parenting Classes, LENA (Language Environment Analysis) Programs: LENA Start (parent group classes), LENA Grow (child caregiver classes) and LENA Home (in-home individual classes).

Classes are free. For more information and to sign-up, please visit:
memphis.edu/ceed/lena/index.php

LENA[™]
RESEARCH FOUNDATION

P.O.P.S is a University of Memphis Registered Student Organization (RSO) that offers fun activities for parents such as getting together for a meal or doing a group activity off-campus.

To learn more about P.O.P.S. activities, visit their page on TigerZone.

FOOD & SHELTER

The University of Memphis Tiger Pantry is open to currently enrolled UofM students and carries non-perishable and perishable food items, basic toiletries and basic household items.

To learn more and sign-up for times, visit memphis.edu/deanofstudents/sos/tigerpantry.php or email tigersfighthunger@memphis.edu

Many UofM student-parents may also be eligible for SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program). To learn more and check your eligibility, visit memphis.edu/deanofstudents/crisis/snap.php

The University of Memphis offers on campus student family housing options. Rates are per semester and include utilities for either a one-bedroom townhouse, two-bedroom townhouse or flat.

To learn more or apply for housing, visit memphis.edu/reslife/