

The University of Memphis
Art Department

M.A in Art History
Concentration: Egyptian Art

Program Requirements

(Up to six hours in a field complementary to art history may be elected in consultation with advisor)

Course Number	Title	Semester/ Year
ARTH 6123¹	Greek Art (Core course)	Fall semester—1 st year
ARTH 7115	Middle Egyptian Grammar I	Fall semester—1 st year
ARTH 6111 or ARTH 6112 or ARTH 6113	Art & Archaeology of Ancient Egypt Art & Archaeology of Old & Middle Kingdoms Art & Archaeology of New Kingdom	Fall semester—1 st year
ARTH 7130	Methods (Core Course)	Spring semester – 1 st year
ARTH 7116	Middle Egyptian Grammar II	Spring semester—1 st year
ARTH 7125	Seminar in Egyptian Art & Archaeology	Spring semester – 1 st year
ARTH 7117	Middle Egyptian Literature	Fall semester—2 nd year
ARTH 7996	Thesis	Spring semester—2 nd year

By the end of their first semester of study, students are expected to pass:

- ✓ a slide exam on ancient Egyptian art
- ✓ a competency exam in Middle Egyptian hieroglyphs
- ✓ a competency exam in either German or French translation

These exams are required for advancement to degree candidacy.

By the end of the first year, students are expected to have selected a thesis committee

By the end of the second year students are expected to have:

- ✓ Successfully completed a master's thesis
- ✓ Passed a comprehensive examination (administered after submission of the M.A. thesis to the student's committee).
- ✓ Successfully defended the comprehensive exam and the M.A. thesis.

¹ Roman Art or Art and Archaeology of Pompeii may only be substituted for Greek Art if Greek Art is not offered during the academic year. At the approval of the concentration advisor, students who have had Classical art as part of their undergraduate degree programs may be granted an exemption from Greek Art.