

Contemporary Drama, English 4453 Online

As we read a variety of plays from the U.S., Europe, Africa, and the Caribbean (from 1950 to the present), we will explore how the texts work to make sense of their historical, cultural, or mythical inheritances. We also will study how the plays attempt to make sense of the human condition or reveal and revel in its absurdity.