

Multicultural children's literature: Bridges and Windows through Intergenerational Stories

Starting from a thematic focus on intergenerational stories and the ways that they might build bridges and windows across ages, nations, ethnicities, and perspectives, participants will read and write about books from multiple cultures that feature intergenerational relationships and themes.

Tentative List of Texts (students will choose two additional texts to read)

Darcie Little Badger, A Snake Falls to Earth, 978-1646144136

Minh Lê (author) and Dan Santat (illustrator) Drawn Together 978-1484767603

Mahasweta Devi (author) and Kanyaka Kini (illustrator) The Why-Why Girl 978-8181460189

Christine Day We Still Belong 978-0063064577

Nnedi Okorafor Akata Witch ISBN 9780142420911

Cyan Abad-Jugo Salingkit ASIN: B013JPD6BC (available as an ebook)

One five page paper, one journal article review with a brief presentation, one book talk presentation on a book of your choice, one visual/verbal/multimodal project on a second book of your choice, reading, discussion, quizzes.