Description:

You can expect to come away from the class having read—and enjoyed—important literary works written by writers of African descent. The course is designed to encourage critical thinking skills and composition skills. As such, you will be expected to write a number of formal assignments. As a class we will explore the cultural, historical, and political realities of African Americans in the United States.

This is an on-line or distance-learning course. As such, the course will consist of e-learning assignments rather than traditional in-class meetings.

Required Text:

Toni Morrison, God Help the Child: A Novel. New York: Vintage International, 2016.
ISBN: 978-0307740922. Typical Price: $7.00 used to $15.00 new.

I will provide e-copies of all additional readings, so you will not have to purchase other texts.
