

The course provides field experience in ESL teaching in through observing teaching by ESL specialists in your local area and also by engaging in supervised teaching. You will need to find a suitable ESL teaching context for the practicum. Please be in contact with the instructor early (before the semester begins) to discuss options for practicum sites.