

Course Description: Studies in Women and Literature

ENGL 4451 - Studies/Women and Literature

Literature and criticism by and about women. PREREQUISITE: ENGL 1010,1020, 2201, and 2202 with a "C-" or better, or their equivalent.

3.000 Credit hours

3.000 Lecture hours

CRN 19469 ENGL 4451.001

MWF 11:30-12:25

Offered by Dr. Cohoon

lcchoon@memphis.edu

PT 110

901.428.8504

Virtual office hours: MW 11-11:30, and by appointment

This course will focus on text and criticism written by women and investigate the ecosystems and economies of texts by women. How do these stories and critical texts show women working, playing, worshipping, creating, rebelling, agitating, surviving and thriving?

Requirements: Reading, Discussion, Research, Two Presentations, One paper 5-8 pages.

Required Texts

The Norton Anthology of Literature by Women: The Traditions in English, 3rd edition. Eds. Susan Gubar, Sandra Gilbert

Publisher : W. W. Norton & Company; 3rd edition (February 2, 2007)

Language : English

Paperback : 1616 pages

ISBN-10 : 0393930149

ISBN-13 : 978-0393930146

Little Women: Norton Critical Edition. Eds. Anne K. Phillips and Gregory Eiselein

Publisher : W. W. Norton & Company (December 5, 2003)

Language : English

Paperback : 665 pages

ISBN-10 : 0393976149

ISBN-13 : 978-0393976144

So Many Beginnings: A Little Women Remix (Remixed Classics, 2)

Bethany C. Morrow

Publisher : Feiwel & Friends (September 7, 2021)

Language : English

Hardcover : 304 pages

ISBN-10 : 1250761212

ISBN-13 : 978-1250761217