

Graduate Poetry Workshop

7603

This workshop aims to develop the graduate-level creative and editorial habits necessary to crafting and revising successful poems. You will read assigned essays and collections thoroughly to aid in the development of a personal canon, foster a variety of aesthetic sensibilities, generate a portfolio, explore opportunities for publication, and engage in literary citizenship.