

FICTION WORKSHOP

ENGL 7602

M 5:30pm

Dr. Mark Mayer

By providing us with travelogues of their ventures into our fiction, our peers help us perceive what we have dreamt. This process requires difference—peers with their own instincts for language, their own sensitivities to experience, and their own narrative intuitions—and solidarity, a shared commitment to putting this difference in service of the author's vision.